Hebrew Word Study A Hebrew Teachers Search For The Heart Of God:

Hebrew Word Study Chaim Bentorah, 2013-09 In his third book Chaim Bentorah finds that after having discovered and exploring God's heart He found himself moving more in an Eastern or Semitic approach to his word studies Rather than allowing his mind to rule his heart he found God's heart ruling his mind in his word studies He began to feel a freedom to allow God's heart to rule His mind When He did this He discovered that He was no longer searching or exploring the Heart of God He was now resting in the Heart of God

Hebrew Word Study CHAIM BENTORAH, 2013-09-27 In silence my heart saw what my eyes could not see my heart heard what my ears could not hear and my heart spoke what my lips could not speak In silence I was able to enter a special room in God's heart a quiet room a weeping room In this room I found Jesus holding a heart in His hands the heart of a young woman a heart which had been broken He was weeping over that broken heart He was feeling the heart's hurt and loneliness He wept over that wounded heart longing so much to heal the wound that tore it apart but this young woman would not seek his comfort I saw Him pick up another heart a heart of wounded veteran That heart was cold and barren and I watched his tear drops just roll off that hardened heart I could sense He was wishing that each tear would somehow penetrate that heart but this brave warrior would not open it to Him to allow the tears of His Savior to enter and soften his heart As He picked up another broken heart I reached out to Him and touched His nail pierced hand and instantly I felt His sorrow and pain the anguish felt by each heart and I too wept All four of us wept It was in this quiet weeping room that I saw my own heart's desire It was to not have a flourishing ministry books published or to even experience a healing of my body it was only to seek and search for these hearts and let them know that there is a Savior weeping for them longing to enter their wounded heart to allow His tears His nailed pierced hands heal those wounds

Hebrew Word Study Chaim Bentorah, 2012-05 There is a growing interest in the Christian community to study the Hebrew language Many Christians have expressed a deep feeling that there is much more to the Old Testament than one experiences in a first reading There is a growing hunger among Christians to study the biblical languages to gain this deeper insight As a Christian who was raised in an evangelical Christian environment I am convinced there are spiritual lessons in the Old Testament that we as Christians never experienced As a Hebrew teacher who has studied the Hebrew language from both a Christian and Jewish perspective I am convinced that there are truths buried in the Old Testament that have never been exposed to us A day rarely passes that I do not discover something new and exciting about God and my relationship with Him that I have never realized in a lifetime of walking with God I have learned that the Old Testament is like the heart of God it is a well that will never run dry In this book you will discover things about God and your relationship with him that you may never have considered Perhaps you have considered such things but found no biblical reference to confirm it Ultimately what you will be discovering is God revealing His heart to you through the depths of His Word as shown through the ancient Hebrew

Do You Hear Him?* Ron Warrren, 2018-03-15 This book written by a practitioner of the gospel seeks to reveal firstly the difference between what life looks like when there is a shepherd looking after life and what it feels like when a shepherd is absent and secondly how to recognize and listen to the voice of the Shepherd and the difference it makes when we obey that voice Jesus the Good Shepherd the Ancient of Days has been speaking to all of creation since before the beginning of time Jesus is the gospel He is the good news It is and only ever will be all about him His ancient words are always constant and unchanging and He continues to speak to the world today through His infallible Word the Bible and through the outworking and constancy of the Holy Spirit The Shepherds words speak to all areas of His creation and life from following Him and discipleship to how He wants the church that bears His name and how His earthly shepherds whom He has called to lead the church will fulfill the mandate set down as clearly laid out in scripture The question for all who seek to follow Him has always been and always will be until the end of time Do you hear Him This book seeks to help us answer that question
