Murphy, 2013-08-21 This guide for professionals to aid adults with mental retardation in dealing with grief provides information on the universal grief process addresses grief issues specific to the mentally retarded adult population and offers practical guidelines for interacting and providing support

Guidebook on Helping Persons with Mental Retardation Mourn Jeffrey Kauffman, 2017-03-02 The book contributes to an awareness of the significance of loss in the life experience of persons with mental retardation Experiencing loss may be a very powerful vulnerability in their mental or psychological life and dealing with this loss is a basic element in psychological health There has been an enormous hole in the death and dying literature and in the mental retardation literature on the mourning behavior and needs of persons with mental retardation This book fills that hole and lays a foundation for grief support services establishes standards of practice and care and is an educational primer about the loss and mourning needs of persons with mental retardation

Bereavement, Loss and Learning Disabilities Robin Grey, 2010-02-15 Losing a loved one and coping with the subsequent adjustments that follow are a difficult fact of life but people with learning disabilities face specific difficulties in processing and managing these changes This book acknowledges the importance of helping relationships in supporting this vulnerable group through periods of loss and bereavement

Social Support John D. Morgan, 2020-11-25 None of us could survive in the workplace community or even in our homes if we allowed everyone to see how truly vulnerable we are Yet social support is a necessity if we are to achieve whatever it is we set out to achieve in this life No human being is an island unto himself Social Support A Reflection of Humanity is a how to book In this work the authors examine the nature of social support how it can be offered and how social support differs from other forms of therapy

Mental Health, Intellectual Disabilities and the Aging Process Philip Davidson, Vee Prasher, Matthew Janicki, 2008-04-15 This book is the third in a series with the International Association for the Scientific Study of Intellectual Disabilities Series Editor Matthew P Janicki These publications are designed to address the issues of health adult development and aging among persons with intellectual disabilities For many years it has been recognized that some adults with intellectual disabilities are at elevated risk for mental and behavioral health problems Often the aging process can complicate the identification diagnosis treatment and prevention of this type of dual diagnosis and present complex challenges to clinicians and carers This book is designed as a practical resource for those involved with the support care and treatment of persons with intellectual disabilities and should prove particularly useful as this community achieves increased longevity The book is divided into three parts Prevalence and Characteristics Diagnosis and Treatment and Service System Issues

The Journey Through Grief and Loss Robert Zucker, 2009-08-18 When adults face a significant loss they must grapple with their own profound grief and they are often called upon to nurture and support their grieving children This is the first book to address this very common dual grieving challenge As a practicing psychotherapist for twenty nine years Robert Zucker can offer parents and other concerned readers important insights into managing their own grief while supporting their grieving children He offers Understanding how adults and children grieve differently Learning how to explain the meaning of death to children Knowing what to do when grief gets complicated Deciding when they and or their child need counseling Helping their family members stay connected with loved ones even after death For the countless parents who have tried blocking out their own grief in order to be available to their child Robert Zucker provides a measure of comfort This book will reassure readers that a grieving parent can still be an effective parent Working with People with Learning Disabilities Honor Woods,David Thomas,2003-02-20 A comprehensive introduction to working with people with learning disabilities this guide provides the theoretical understanding needed to inform good practice and to help improve the quality of life of people within this group Using accessible language and case examples the authors discuss both psychological and practical theories Comforting the Bereaved Through Listening and Positive Responding Dr. Dee Stern L.C.P.C. PsyD,2022-01-27 We don t seem to handle grief very well whether it s our own or someone close to us Part of the problem is that we live in a death denying society where many people feel awkward using terms like death dying or dead We rarely say that someone has died and instead use metaphors to soften the blow This book helps families friends colleagues and professionals to understand what someone who has lost a loved one is feeling Topics include the death of a child teen adult older adult spouse sibling mentally challenged individuals death of a pet and pets grieve too The author answers questions such as Why are there fewer rituals surrounding death today What do you say to someone who has lost a loved one How long do the bereaved continue to grieve What does it mean to be going through complicated grief Grief is the great equalizer and no matter who or what we are or how rich or poor grief can bring us to our knees But you can navigate it in a healthier way with the lessons in Comforting the Bereaved through Listening and Positive Responding People in Crisis Lee Ann Hoff,Lisa Brown,Miracle R. Hoff,2011-02-25 The first edition of People in Crisis published in 1978 established success as a comprehensive and user friendly text for health and social service professionals The book and its following incarnations included critical life events and life cycle transition challenges clearly pointing out the interconnections between such events stressful developmental changes and their potential for growth but also danger of suicide and or violence toward others This revised edition includes new case examples and expanded coverage of cross cultural content including commonalities and differences in origins manifestations and crisis responses The authors illustrate the application of crisis concepts assessment and intervention strategies across a wide range of health and mental health settings as well as at home school workplace and in the community Each chapter contains a closing summary that includes discussion questions references and online data sources for maximum application and learning Updated chapters discuss new research based content on workplace violence and abuse youth violence in schools and higher education settings the use of psychotropic drugs including for very young children in the absence of comprehensive assessment the crisis vulnerability of war veterans and the hazards of pathologizing what should be considered a normal response to the repeated and catastrophic trauma of war the intersection of socio political factors with individuals psychological healing from catastrophic experiences such as war and natural disaster Clinical Handbook of Pastoral Counseling Robert J. Wicks,Richard D. Parsons,Donald Capps,2003 Building on the groundbreaking original work with the same title these articles focus on current issues such as certain life stages special populations the devalued and abused the addicted and special issues of the 1990 s Community Supports for Aging Adults with Lifelong Disabilities Matthew P. Janicki,Edward F. Ansello,2000 This book addresses the needs of older adults age 45 and older with developmental disabilities and adults with other lifelong disabilities who have similar needs It discusses age related and disability related issues in community life Death and Dying John F. Szabo,2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Journal of Palliative Care ,2002 American Journal of Mental Retardation ,2008 Includes the association s conference proceedings and addresses Spiritual Caregiving as Secular Sacrament Ray Sherman Anderson,John Swinton,2003 The author explores spirituality in the context of the individual and of society and discusses how those practicing pastoral or health care can deal with the issues raised outside of any religious ideas or practice Anderson shows how professionals can help people move towards a more positive state in the face of pain distress and illness Mental Retardation Doesn't Mean 'Stupid'! Robert E. Cimera,2006-02-20 An essential tool for parents seasoned teachers and other individuals involved in the life of somebody who happens to have mental retardation this book provides readers with scores of useful resources including websites professional organizations and support groups Helping Grieving People J. Shep Jeffreys,2004-12-30 Helping Grieving People is a training manual for care providers who will provide support and counseling to those grieving death illness and other losses The author addresses grief as it affects a variety of relationships and discusses different intervention and support strategies always cognizant of individual and cultural differences in the expression and treatment of grief Jeffreys has established a practical approach to preparing trainee caregivers through three basic tracks Heart Head and Hand The first step Heart calls for self discovery freeing oneself of accumulated loss in order to focus all attention on the griever Head emphasizes understanding the complex and dynamic phenomena of human grief Hand stresses the caregiver s actual intervention and speaks to the appropriate level of skill as well as the various methods of healing available Following these three motifs the Handbook discusses the social and cultural contexts of grief as well as its psychological constructs

Helping Adults With Mental Retardation Grieve A Death Loss: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Helping Adults With Mental Retardation Grieve A Death Loss : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Helping Adults With Mental Retardation Grieve A Death Loss : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
