UNO Beschäftigten in Zeiten des Postfordismus Ausgehend von der Perspektive junger Beschäftigter an den UNO Standorten in Genf und Wien befasst sich das Buch mit der zunehmenden Flexibilisierung und Arbeitsplatzunsicherheit Die Studie legt ein besonderes Augenmerk auf mikrostrukturelle Machtpraktiken und die individuelle Agency Sie zeigt wie UNO Beschäftigte ihre persönlichen Erzählungen mit dem in den vergangenen Jahren und Jahrzehnten kreierten Organisationsbild in Einklang bringen und in welchem Wechselspiel die prekären Beschäftigungsverhältnisse mit einem moralischen Berlegenheitsgefühl stehen Dabei wird deutlich dass diese Entwicklungen keinen Widerspruch darstellen sondern zwei Seiten derselben Medaille sind Das Buch zeigt am Beispiel der UNO auf wie flexible Beschäftigungsverhältnisse in Zeiten des kognitiv und affektbasierten Kapitalismus auf Biographien wirken <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0/>

Rehabilitation in Practice Christopher M. Hayre,Dave J. Muller,Paul M. W. Hackett,2022-02-11 This book focuses on developing the use of ethnographic research for rehabilitation practitioners by recognizing its value methodologically and empirically in the field of rehabilitation The very nature of ethnographic research offers an array of opportunities for researchers to understand the social world around them The book identifies the multifaceted use of ethnographic methods in the rehabilitation setting It touches on how acute and chronic conditions can affect the nature of ethnographic work in attempts to offer originality in a range of rehabilitation settings Readers will find this collection of examples useful for informing their own research and it aims to enlighten new discussion and arguments regarding both methodological and empirical use of ethnographic work internationally

Negotiating Religion and Non-religion in Childhood Rachael Shillitoe,2023-11-17 This book explores how and if the mandate for children to worship in schools can be justified within the context of declining church attendance and increasing nonreligious identification in British society Shillitoe asks what place compulsory worship has in an increasingly diverse and plural society and what the answer means for the relationship between religion the secular and education more broadly Through in depth ethnographic fieldwork from across three schools in southwest England the book reveals how examining the significance of children's experiences expands our understanding of both collective worship in schooling and religion in social life more broadly and demonstrates that adult centric anxieties and assumptions in this area do not always reflect the experiences of children

Enhancing Digital Literacies with Adult English Language Learners Ekaterina Tour,Edwin Creely,Peter Waterhouse,2022-05-15 Offering a new perspective on adult English language education this book provides theoretical and practical insights into how digital literacies can be included in the learning programmes for newly arrived adults from migrant and refugee backgrounds Enhancing Digital Literacies with Adult English Language Learners takes readers inside Langfield an adult community based English language centre that supports the settlement and learning of this vulnerable group Drawing on a six month ethnographic study of Langfield's work the book explores the approach to teaching digital literacies and presents a range of perspectives including those of the adult learners the teachers and the organisation's CEO The chapters present a holistic view of teaching digital literacies in the adult

English language context by exploring adult learners digital literacy practices in everyday life and their learning at Langfield teachers beliefs and practices about digital literacies and the support offered to them through institutional resources leadership and professional learning The book identifies exemplary practices as well as areas for further development in Langfield s work and offers a range of implications for practice policy and research Written in a detailed but accessible manner this book contributes important insights into the strengths and needs of this unique and complex education sector Addressing an area of uncertainty for many researchers practitioners leaders and policy makers working within community based learning contexts in Australia and internationally this book will be an essential resource The Routledge

Companion to Qualitative Accounting Research Methods Zahirul Hoque, Lee D. Parker, Kathryn Haynes, 2017-03-31 Selecting from the wide range of research methodologies remains a dilemma for all scholars not least those looking to study the world of accounting Both established and emerging research methods are frequently advocated creating a challengingly broad range of choices Covering a selection of qualitative methodological issues research strategies and methods this comprehensive compilation provides an essential guide to the choice and execution of qualitative research approaches in this field The contributions are grouped into four sections Worldview and paradigms Methodologies and strategies Data collection methods and analysis Experiencing qualitative field research personal reflections Edited by leading scholars with contributions from experts and rising stars this volume will be essential reading for anyone looking to undertake research in the qualitative accounting field Self-Declaration in the Legal Recognition of Gender Chris Dietz, 2022-10-21 Self

Declaration in the Legal Recognition of Gender examines the impact of legislation premised upon the principle of self declaration of legal gender status Existing doctrinal and comparative analyses have tended to come out strongly in favour of or against self declaration This book offers a socio legal alternative which focuses on how self declaration is experienced on an embodied level by trans and gender diverse people It presents research conducted in Denmark which became the first European state to adopt self declaration in June 2014 By analysing Danish law through a Foucauldian framework which brings together socio feminist and trans legal scholarship on embodiment and jurisdiction the book offers the first empirically based and theoretically informed analysis of self declaration It draws upon legal consciousness affect theory vulnerability and governmentality literatures to argue that the jurisdictional boundaries which existed between law and medicine were maintained throughout the reform process This limited the impact of the legislation enabling access to health care to be restricted in the same year in which amending legal gender status was liberalised As the list of states that have adopted self declaration increases this intervention offers activists and policymakers insights which might shape how they respond to similar reform proposals in the future A timely and important assessment this book will appeal to researchers and practitioners working in trans gender feminist legal and socio legal studies Local Lives Brigitte

Bönisch-Brednich, 2016-12-05 Local Lives contests dominant trends in migration theory demonstrating that many migrant identities have not become entirely diasporic or cosmopolitan but remain equally focused on emplaced belonging and the anxieties of being uprooted By addressing the question of how migrants legally and symbolically lay claim to owning and belonging to place it refocuses our attention on the micro politics and everyday rituals of place making that are central to the construction of migrant identities Exploring immigrants interactions with house spaces property rights environmental conservation landscape historical knowledge of place ideas of local community and place specific traditions this volume shows how in a fluid world of movement locality remains a deeply contested and symbolically rich place to situate identity and to constitute the self Thematically organised and presenting a diverse range of empirical studies dealing with migrant communities in Hawaii Britain France Spain Australia New Zealand the Dominican Republic and Albania Local Lives reorients research in migration and transnational studies around locality As such it will appeal to social scientists working on questions relating to landscape identity and belonging race and ethnicity and migration and transnationalism
