Keystone Stables 8 Series:

Morning Telegraph's Racing Chart Book, 1915 The Long Ride Home Marsha Hubler, 2010-07-06 In the eighth and final book of the Keystone Stables series perfect for girls who love horses and horse fiction foster child Skye must confront her past and decide her future when she has the opportunity to find her birth parents and possibly reunite. On a trip to South Carolina with her foster family Skye gets the shock of her life when the waitress at a local diner seems to recognize her. The woman proves to be Skye's long lost Aunt Millie, the first blood relative Skye has ever met. As Skye and Mom and Dad Chambers attempt to track down Skye's birth parents with Millie's help, Skye's foster sister and best friend Morgan struggles with her own family regrets. As the secrets of both Skye's and Morgan's lives are revealed, it becomes clear more is at stake than anyone can imagine, and both girls have a big decision to make. The Long Ride Home is written by an author who has firsthand experience with horses and foster care. It is a contemporary and realistic plot with an inspirational Christian message, features a character with special needs, contains extensive back matter on different horse breeds, how to care for them, and horsemanship, as well as facts, diagrams, and a glossary of horse terms so girls can better know their favorite animal.

Leading the Way Marsha Hubler, 2010-08-03 In the fifth book of the Keystone Stables series perfect for girls who love horses and horse fiction, foster child Skye hopes to find a new friend in Katie, a blind girl who is encountering horses for the first time, but Katie's anger might end their relationship before it really starts. When Skye hears that a blind girl named Katie Thomas will be coming to Keystone Stables to learn to ride horses, she's determined to do whatever she can to make the new girl feel at home. That includes finding Katie the perfect horse to ride. Through Boomerang, a champion barrel racing pinto, Katie gains an excitement for riding lessons, but her recurring anger over her parents' separation and upcoming divorce, as well as her blindness, leads to tensions in the barn and between Katie and Skye. Then Katie asks Skye to help her reach a very special goal for herself and Boomerang in hopes of getting both her parents to watch her ride at the same time. Achieving it will take courage, but the prize could be greater than any blue ribbon. Leading the Way is written by an author who has firsthand experience with horses and foster care. Planning, Time, and Self-Governance Michael E. Bratman, 2018-06-01 Our human capacity for planning agency plays central roles in the cross temporal organization of our agency in our acting and thinking together both at a time and over time and in our self governance both at a time and over time Intentions can be understood as states in such a planning system The practical thinking at the bottom of this planning capacity is guided by norms that enjoin synchronic plan consistency and means end coherence as well as forms of plan stability over time The essays in this book aim to deepen our understanding of these norms and to defend their status as norms of practical rationality for planning agents The general guidance by these planning norms has many pragmatic benefits especially given our cognitive and epistemic limits But appeal to these general pragmatic benefits does not fully explain the normative force of these norms in the particular case In response to this challenge some think these norms are at bottom norms of theoretical rationality on one's beliefs some think these norms are constitutive of intentional agency some think they are norms of interpretation and some think the idea of such norms of practical rationality is a myth These essays chart an alternative path This path sees these planning norms as tracking conditions of a planning agent's self governance both at a time and over time It seeks associated models of such self governance And it appeals to the idea that the end of one's self governance over time while not essential to intentional agency per se is within the planning framework rationally self sustaining and a keystone of a rationally stable reflective equilibrium that involves the norms of plan rationality This end is thereby in a position to play a role in our planning framework that parallels the role of a concern with quality of will within the framework of the reactive emotions as understood by Peter Strawson *Biennial Report of the Auditor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the Two Years Ending May 31 ...
