Pérez,2022-04-01 The contributors in Ethnographic Refusals Unruly Latinidades highlight the value of radical inclusion in their research and call for a critical self reflexivity that marshals the power of bearing witness to move from rhetoric to praxis in support of these methodologies within anthropological perspectives The essays in this collection do not offer simple solutions to histories of colonialism patriarchy and misogyny through which gender binaries and racial hierarches have been imposed and reproduced but rather provide a crucial opportunity for reflection on and continued reimagination of the contours of Latinidad These scholars deploy Latinx strategically as part of ongoing dialogues understanding that their terminologies are inherently imprecise contested and constantly shifting Each chapter explores how Latinx ethnographers and interlocutors work together in contexts of refusal ever mindful of how power shapes these encounters and the analyses that emerge from them as well as the extraordinary possibilities offered by ethnography and its role in ongoing social transformation Decolonisations of Literature Stefan Helgesson,2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press

website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies

comparative examination of such rights arenas reveals that the Left's more general political and economic projects have been profoundly if at times unintentionally informed by traditional understandings of gender and sexuality Contributors Sonia E Alvarez Mar a Constanza Diaz Rachel Elfenbein Elisabeth Jay Friedman Niki Johnson Victoria Keller Edurne Larracoechea Bohigas Amy Lind Marlise Matos Shawna Mullenax Ana Laura Rodriguez Gustavo Sempol Constanza Tabbush Gwynn Thomas Catalina Trebisacce Annie Wilkinson     The Challenge of BRIC Multinationals Rob van Tulder, Alain Verbeke, Jorge Carneiro, Maria Alejandra Gonzalez-Perez, 2016-11-23 This PIBR volume examines a number of idiosyncratic elements in the internationalization strategies of BRIC MNEs and in particular in their relationship with home country policies
