The Glory of Serbia Being a Reprint From the Gods in the Battle (Classic Reprint) Paul Hyacinthe the Loyson, 2018-01-30
Excerpt from The Glory of Serbia Being a Reprint From the Gods in the Battle It is a great honour for me to preface it although I am conscious that my words could never equal his sublime eloquence and passionate desire to see Iniquity punished and Justice triumphant in the world I am confident that every reader of his words will feel in them the beating of the noble heart of France that France who bleeding from her own wounds inflicted by an overbearing invader is still subduing her own pains to give comfort and assistance to Serbia the weaker sister in the path of glory and sacrifice that France who forgetting neither her own children nor her sacred soil trampled under the foot of brutal slave drivers still in the nobility of her character is burning with just indignation at the foul Bulgaro German conspiracy against Serbia and European liberties About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2010-09-29 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800-1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region's literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature's participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region s literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region

The Great and Holy War Philip Jenkins,2014-06-20 The Great and Holy War offers the first look at how religion created and prolonged the First World War and the lasting impact it had on Christianity and world religions more extensively in the century that followed The war was fought by the world s leading Christian nations who presented the conflict as a holy war A steady stream of patriotic and militaristic rhetoric was served to an unprecedented audience using language that spoke of holy war and crusade of apocalypse and Armageddon But this rhetoric was not mere state propaganda Philip Jenkins reveals how the widespread belief in angels apparitions and the supernatural was a driving force throughout the war and shaped all three of the Abrahamic religions Christianity Judaism and Islam paving the way for modern views of religion and violence The disappointed hopes and moral compromises that followed the war also shaped the political climate of the rest of the century giving rise to such phenomena as Nazism totalitarianism and communism Connecting remarkable incidents and characters from Karl Barth to Carl Jung the Christmas Truce to the Armenian Genocide Jenkins creates a powerful and persuasive narrative that brings together global politics history and spiritual crisis We cannot understand our present religious political and cultural climate without understanding the dramatic changes initiated by the First World War The war created the world s religious map as we know it today The Red Cross Courier ,1936 The Athenaeum ,1917

Bloody Nations Dr Cherry Bradshaw,2013-03-28 The dominance of nationalism as ideology and the resurgence of nationalist and ethnic conflict since the end of the Cold War both demand further analysis of the complex interplay between nation state sovereignty and self determination Contrary to many commentators who regard nationalism today merely as an atavistic counter modernist experience Cherry Bradshaw places the phenomenon of nationalism squarely within the continuing Enlightenment project and brings together political theory history anthropology and international relations in order to investigate the appeal and the dangers of nationalism in contemporary world politics This is critical reading for those interested in ethics political theory and philosophy human rights and political sociology The CEO of the Sofa P.
