Goat Days Benjamin:

Goat Days Benjamin, 2012-07-17 Najeeb's dearest wish is to work in the Gulf and earn enough money to send back home. He achieves his dream only to be propelled by a series of incidents grim and absurd into a slave-like existence herding goats in the middle of the Saudi desert. Memories of the lush verdant landscape of his village and of his loving family haunt Najeeb whose only solace is the companionship of goats. In the end the lonely young man contrives a hazardous scheme to escape his desert prison. Goat Days was published to acclaim in Malayalam and became a bestseller. One of the brilliant new talents of Malayalam literature Benjamin's wry and tender telling transforms this strange and bitter comedy of Najeeb's life in the desert into a universal tale of loneliness and alienation.

The Gulf Migrant Archives in Kerala Mohamed Shafeeq Karinkurayil, 2024-03-20 The Indian state of Kerala is one of the largest blocs of migrants in the oil economies of the Arab Gulf. Looking closely at the cultural archives produced by and on the Gulf migrants in Malayalam the predominant language of Kerala this book takes stock of circular migration beyond its economics. It combines formal and thematic analyses of photographs films and literature with anthropological and historical details to offer a nuanced understanding of the construction of the Gulf and its translation to the cultural imaginary of Kerala. It explores the dissonance between the private and public discourses on the Gulf among migrants and non migrants and demonstrates the role of this disjuncture in the continued fascination for Gulf migrant lives. An enquiry into the various dimensions of the Gulf in Kerala as an acknowledged means of living as a rumour an object of gossip a public secret or even a private thrill this book debunks the idea of language as a common entity and studies the tentative borders built within. Finally it explores the resources possibilities and perils of affiliative communities constructed along and across those borders.

Oil Fictions Stacey Balkan, Swaralipi Nandi, 2021-10-15 Oil like other fossil fuels permeates every aspect of human existence. Yet it has been largely ignored by cultural critics especially in the context of the Global South. Seeking to make visible not only the pervasiveness of oil in society and culture but also its power Oil Fictions stages a critical intervention that aligns with the broader goals of the energy humanities. Exploring literature and film about petroleum as a genre of world literature Oil Fictions focuses on the ubiquity of oil as well as the cultural response to petroleum in postcolonial states. The chapters engage with African South American South Asian Iranian and transnational petrofictions and cover topics such as the relationship of colonialism to the fossil fuel economy issues of gender in the Thermocene epoch and discussions of migration precarious labor and the petro diaspora This unique exploration includes testimonies of the oil encounter through memoirs journals and interviews from a diverse geopolitical grid ranging from the Permian Basin to the Persian Gulf By engaging with non Western literary responses to petroleum in a concentrated sustained way this pathbreaking book illuminates the transnational dimensions of the discourse on oil It will appeal to scholars and students working in literature and science studies energy humanities ecocriticism petrocriticism environmental humanities and Anthropocene studies In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Henry Obi Ajumeze Rebecca Babcock Ashley Dawson Sharae Deckard Scott DeVries Kristen Figgins Amitav Ghosh Corbin Hiday Helen Kapstein Micheal Angelo Rumore Simon Ryle Sheena Stief Imre Szeman Maya Vinai and Wendy W Walters

Indian Literatures in Diaspora Sireesha Telugu, 2022-07-08 This book analyses diasporic literatures written in Indian languages written by authors living outside their homeland and contextualize the understanding of migration and migrant identities Examining diasporic literature produced in Bengali Hindi Malayalam Indian Nepali Odia Punjabi Marathi and Tamil the book argues that writers in the diaspora who choose to write in their vernacular languages attempt to retain their native language for they believe that the loss of the language would lead to the loss of their culture The author answers seminal questions including How are these writers different from mainstream Indian writers who write in English Themes and issues that could be compared to or contrasted with the diasporic literatures written in English are also explored The book offers a significant examination of the nature and dynamics of the multilingual Indian society and culture and its global readership It is the first book on Indian diasporic literature in Indian and transnational languages and a pioneering contribution to the field The book will be of interest to academics in the field of South Asian Studies South Asian literature Asian literature diaspora and literary studies Globalization and Sense-Making Practices Simi Malhotra, Zahra Rizvi, Shraddha A. Singh, 2023-09-11 This book presents a critical analysis of sense making practices through an exploration of acoustic creative and artistic spaces It studies how local cultures of sight hearing smell taste and touch are impacted by global discourses and media such as television popular music digital media and literature The authors look at sense making practices and spatial discourses through an interconnected discussion on thought and experience that seeks to present a multidimensional cartography of the global the local and the glocal to closely analyze the phenomenon of globalization The volume is an investigation of the possibilities of alternate sustainable modes of being and existing in a world which requires a unified ethical biopolitical worldview that challenges the disparity of its fragments while speculating on their synesthetic conditionality A unique contribution the book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of English literature media studies cultural studies literary cultures post colonial studies globalization studies philosophy critical theory sociology and social anthropology Temporary Cities Yasser Elsheshtawy, 2019-03-28 Are Arab Gulf cities the likes of Dubai Abu Dhabi or Doha on their way to extinction Is their fate obsolescence Or are they the model for our urban future Can a city whose very existence is predicated on an imported labour force who build and operate these gleaming urban centres remain a viable urban entity Could the transient nature of this urban model its temporariness and precariousness also be its doom In this wide ranging book Yasser Elsheshtawy takes on these tough but necessary questions aiming to examine the very nature of the Arab Gulf city and whether it can sustain its existence throughout the twenty first century Having lived in the region for more than two decades he researched its marginalized and forgotten urban settings trying to understand how a temporary people can live in a place that inherently refuses to give them the possibility of becoming citizens By being embedded in these spaces and reconciling their presence with his own personal encounters with transience he discovered a resilience and defiance against the forces of the hegemonic city Using subtle acts of resistance these temporary inhabitants have found a way to sustain and create a home to set down roots in the midst of a fast changing and transient urbanity Their stories recounted in this book through case studies and in depth analysis give hope to cities everywhere Transience is not a fait accompli rather the actions of citizens residents and migrants even in the highly restrictive spaces of the Gulf show us that the future metropolis may very well not turn out to be a utopia of the few and a dystopia of the many This could be an illusion but it is a necessary illusion because the alternative is irrelevance Handbook of Culture and Glocalization

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Indian Literatures Ulka Anjaria, Anjali Nerlekar, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Indian Literatures is a compilation of scholarship on Indian literature from the 19th century to the present in a range of Indian languages On one hand because of reasons associated with national academic structures publishing resources and global visibility English writing gets privileged over all the other linguistic traditions in the scholarship on Indian literatures On the other hand within the scholarship on regional language literary productions in Hindi Marathi Bengali etc the critical works and the surveys focus only on that particular language and therefore frequently suffer from a lack of comparative breadth and or global access Both reflect the paradigm of monolingualism within which much literary scholarship on Indian literature takes place This handbook instead focuses on the multilingual pathways through which modern Indian literature gets constituted It features cutting edge literary criticism from at least seventeen languages and on traditional literary genres as well as more recent ones like graphic novels It shows the deep connections and collaborations across genres languages nations and regions that produce a literature of diverse contact zones generating innovations on form aesthetics and technique Foregrounding themes such as modernity and modernism gender caste diaspora and political resistance the book collects an array of perspectives on this vast topic

Narrating Violence in the Postcolonial World Rebecca Romdhani, Daria Tunca, 2021-09-05 This book examines representations of violence across the postcolonial world from the Americas to Australia in novels short stories plays and films The chapters move from what appear to be interpersonal instances of violence to communal conflicts such as civil war showing how these acts of violence are specifically rooted in colonial forms of abuse and oppression but constantly move and morph Taking its cue from theories in such fields as postcolonial violence gender and trauma studies the book thus shows that violence is slippery in form but also fluid in nature so that one must trace its movement across time and space to understand even a single instance of it When analysing such forms and trajectories of violence in postcolonial creative writing and films the contributors critically examine the ethical issues involved in narrating abuse depicting violated bodies and presenting romanticized resolutions that may conceal other forms of violence
