The Lumber Manufacturer and Dealer, 1911 Letters on the Autonomy Project Janet Matina Sarbanes, 2022 In the face of rising authoritarianism and on the heels of urgent struggle autonomy calls to us How might we excavate the theory and history of autonomous politics to arrive at new possibilities for radical democracy and the radical imaginary How can we rethink the ways in which artistic autonomy is theorized and practiced beyond the shrunken horizon of liberal individualism How might we understand political and artistic autonomies as linked rather than diametrically opposed And what role does radical pedagogy have to play in all of this Framed by the thought of Cornelius Castoriadis and engaging with Marxist Black Radical and Feminist approaches to liberation as well as movements such as Occupy Black Lives Matter Me Too Letters on the Autonomy Project understands autonomy to be the capacity of a society a community or an individual to modify its form As Castoriadis argues the struggle for self-determination requires unlimited questioning of the way things are but also that we do or make something new in light of this interrogation Autonomy is thus equally a project for thought for education for politics and for art Provided by publisher The Automotive Manufacturer, 1878 The Complete Book of Collection Letters, Telephone Scripts, and Faxes Cecil J.
