Eschatological Discipleship Trevin Wax,2018-04-01 Discipleship is eschatological in nature because the church that makes and receives disciples is eschatological in nature Often eschatology is thought to refer only to last things doctrines However eschatology in its broader sense encompasses the Christian view of time and the future of the world informing both one s evangelism and ecclesiology Failing to relate the eschatological dimension to discipleship leaves one with an incomplete worldview imbalanced discipleship and eventually a tragic inability to model the Christian way of life By answering questions like What time is it and Where is history going Trevin Wax helps Christians view the past present and future biblically and shapes their understanding of following Jesus

Medders,2019-03-01 Understanding Calvinism in our hearts as well as in our heads Understanding Calvinism in our hearts as well as in our heads Calvinism has an image problem For far too long it has been synonymous with being argumentative arrogant and unloving Somehow the doctrines of grace often haven t made those who believe them actually gracious Self confessed recovering cranky Calvinist Jeff Medders wonders whether the love of God has been replaced with the love of Calvinism It s one thing having the five points all worked out in your head but have they really penetrated your heart His warm hearted challenging and surprisingly witty book reveals how a true understanding of the five points fuels a love of Christ and his people that builds others up rather than tearing them down Medders urges readers to be humble and gracious as well as zealous for the truth to the praise and glory of Christ and his church Gospel-Centered Counseling Robert W.
