Research in Education ,1974 Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford,Marilyn Mullay,Priscilla Schlicke,Library Association,1996 This new edition of Volume II last published in 1994 has been extensively expanded and revised in all areas Fully updated the new edition includes major changes and covers a span of topics from archaeology through medieval history to statistics It includes philosophy psychology religion social sciences geography biology and history All areas have been completely updated with additional material in economics business and management (Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams,Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng,2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation. Authors' voices come from a variety of contexts: some historical, some contemporary, some providing analyses over time. But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity, belonging, and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced, invisible, marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative. The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider. This book is thus about who we are, not only demographically but also in terms of the past, especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks. The concluding chapters provide ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive, critical, and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts.
