

Literary Devices used for Storytelling

EnglishLeaflet.com

1 Foreshadowing

A literary technique used by the authors to hint the future events in a story. It develops excitement in the readers, raises expectations and building suspense about what is happen next.

2 Flashback

A literary device that involves the insertion of past theme or event into the current narrative timeline. Flashback is used to provide reference of the characters or events.

3 Imagery

It involves the use of evocative and expressive language to create mental pictures for the readers. It appeals to the senses and involves visual, auditory, tactile, olfactory and gustatory descriptions.

4 Symbolism

This literary device is used to represent ideas and qualities beyond their literal sense. These symbols are in shape of objects, characters, figures and colors that set up broader concepts.

5 Metaphor

In metaphor, a word or a phrase is put on an object or an action which it is not really applied to. This literary device is a kind of comparison between two unrelated subjects without using the words "like" and "as".

6 Alliteration

Alliteration is a literary technique, where words are used in close proximity and start with the same consonant sound.

7 Irony

Irony is a literary device where the intended meaning of words is different from the actual meaning. The outcome of a situation is contrary to what one might expect.

8 Personification

Personification is used to give human qualities, characteristics and actions to non-human entities, such as animals, objects and abstract concepts.
