(Claim) In the story, "Fish in a Tree" by Lynda Mullaly Hunt, Ally is hopeless because she can't think of any positive attributes about herself, she feels that she will never be able to read, and above all, because she believes that she deserves to walk a long way home alone.

(Reason #1) Topic sentence- The first reason why Ally is hopeless is because she only has negative thoughts to describe herself. Explain quote in my own words- Her pregnant teacher, Mrs. Hall wanted Ally to write something to describe herself as a way to get to know her new teacher that will be replacing her. Ally insists on drawing all the time instead of completing her work. Quote from story from Box-and Bullet chart- On page 2, the text stated, "I can't think of anything worse than having to describe myself. I'd rather write about something more positive. Like throwing up at your own birthday party." (Mullaly, 1) Prove your point- This shows that Ally doesn't think that she'll ever be who she hopes to be someday.
