Literati Storytelling In Late Medieval China Modern Language Initiative S:

Literati Storytelling in Late Medieval China Manling Luo, 2015-02-02 Scholar officials of late medieval China were not only enthusiastic in amateur storytelling but also showed unprecedented interest in recording stories on different aspects of literati life. These stories appeared in diverse forms including narrative poems, tales of the marvelous, records of the strange, historical miscellanies, and transformation texts. Through storytelling, literati explored their own changing place in a society that was making its final transition from hereditary aristocracy to a meritocracy ostensibly open to all. Literati Storytelling shows how these writings offer crucial insights into the reconfiguration of the Chinese elite which monopolized literacy, social prestige, and political participation in imperial China. Asian Studies Newsletter, 1997 Odyssey of Culture Yan Zhou, 2015-03-11 This book is the first case study on Wenda Gu that systematically investigates the cultural and artistic context of his life and works, examining selected images of his artwork spanning from the late 1970s to the early 21st century. It is the first monograph to provide a comprehensive and profound study of a Chinese contemporary artist. In the 1980s, the School of Hermeneutics attempted to launch a discursive revolution. Vanguard artists believed that the visual art revolution was an integral part of the critique of culture because it tended to subvert and rebuild the cultural tradition at a discursive level. This book, using a case study on Wenda Gu as representative of Chinese avant-garde, investigates the centrality of culture in art, providing readers with insights on the origin, rationale, and methodology of Chinese contemporary art.
