Purcell,1992 Litigation and Inequality explores the dynamic and intricate relationship between legal and social change through the prism of litigation tactics and out of court settlement practices from the 1870s to the 1950s Developing the synthetic historical concept of a social litigation system Purcell analyzes the role of both substantive and procedural law as well as the impact of social and political factors in shaping the de facto processes of litigation and claims disputing Focusing on tort and insurance contract disputes between individuals and national corporations he examines the changing social and economic significance of the choice between state and national courts that federal diversity jurisdiction gave litigants Litigation and Inequality scrutinizes the increasingly sophisticated methods that parties developed to exploit their ability to choose between forums It also traces the changing responses of the courts and legislatures to the escalation of tactical maneuvering It locates the origins of modern litigation practice in the quarter century after 1910 Purcell points to fundamental flaws in the efficiency theory of tort law of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century He identifies specific ways in which the legal system regularly subsidized corporate enterprise He seriously qualifies and refines the progressive charge that the federal courts favored business interests The book argues that during the period from the turn of the century to World War I especially the critical period from 1905 to 1908 the Supreme Court reoriented the federal judicial system and essentially created the twentieth century federal judiciary It also challenges the idea that diversity jurisdiction is best understood as a device to protect nonresidents from local prejudice It illuminates a range of related historical and legal issues from the ostensible formalism of the late nineteenth century judicial thinking to the origins of the workmen s compensation movement Examining these developments with clarity and insight this work will interest historians and sociologists as well as lawyers and legal scholars Litigation and Inequality Edward A. Purcell Jr., 1992-12-31 Through the prism of litigation practice and tactics Purcell explores the dynamic relationship between legal and social change He studies changing litigation patterns in suits between individuals and national corporations over tort claims for personal injuries and contract claims for insurance benefits Purcell refines the progressive claim that the federal courts favored business enterprise during this time identifying specific manners and times in which the federal courts reached decisions both in favor of and against national corporations He also identifies 1892 1908 as a critical period in the evolution of the twentieth century federal judicial system California. Subcommittee on Finance and Hazardous Materials, 1998 A Comparative Study of Funding Shareholder Litigation Wenjing Chen, 2017-04-25 This book studies the funding problems with shareholder litigation through a functionally comparative way In fact funding problems with shareholder lawsuits may largely discourage potential shareholder litigants who bear high financial risk in pursuing such a claim but on the other hand they may not have much to gain Considering the lack of incentives for potential shareholder claimants effective funding techniques should be in place to make shareholder actions function as a corporate governance tool and discipline corporate management The book analyzes among others the practice of funding shareholder litigation in the Australia Canada the UK the US and Israel and covers all of the typical approaches being used in financing shareholder litigation in the current world For instance Israel and Canada

Quebec and Ontario are probably unique in having a public funding mechanism for derivative actions and class actions while Australia is the country where third party litigation funding is originated and is growing rapidly Based on this comparative research the last part of this book discusses how to fund shareholder litigation in China in context of its social and legal background and what kind of problems need to be solved if certain funding techniques are used     Directory of Portable Databases ,1992     Civil Litigation Management Manual ,2010     Litigation Services Handbook Roman L.
