Little Manx Nation Hall Caine:

The Little Manx Nation, by Hall Caine,... Hall Caine,1891      The Little Manx Nation Hall Caine,2016-04-01 Many of Hall Caine s most popular novels are set on or near the Isle of Man and he was fiercely proud of his Manx cultural heritage This volume collects the texts of a series of lectures Caine gave at the Royal Institution in Liverpool about the history and culture of the Isle of Man and its inhabitants      The Little Manx Nation - 1891 Sir Hall Caine,2016-02-14 Sir Thomas Henry Hall Caine usually known as Hall Caine was a Manx author He is best known as a novelist and playwright of the late Victorian and the Edwardian eras      The Little Manx Nation Hall, Sir Caine,2017-10-17 Sir Thomas Henry Hall Caine CH KBE 14 May 1853 31 August 1931 usually known as Hall Caine was a British author He is best known as a novelist and playwright of the late Victorian and the Edwardian eras In his time he was exceedingly popular and at the peak of his success his novels outsold those of his contemporaries Many of his novels were also made into films His novels were primarily romantic in nature involving the love triangle but they did also address some of the more serious political and social issues of the day

The Little Manx Nation - 1891 (Esprios Classics) Hall Caine,2024-11-28 Sir Thomas Henry Hall Caine CH KBE 14 May 1853 31 August 1931 usually known as Hall Caine was a British novelist dramatist short story writer poet and critic of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Caine s popularity during his lifetime was unprecedented He wrote fifteen novels on subjects of adultery divorce domestic violence illegitimacy infanticide religious bigotry and women s rights became an international literary celebrity and sold a total of ten million books Caine was the most highly paid novelist of his day The Eternal City is the first novel to have sold over a million copies worldwide      The Little Manx Nation - 1891 Hall Caine,2018-08-14 The Little Manx Nation 1891 by Hall Caine There are just two ideas which are associated in the popular imagination with the first thought of the Isle of Man The one is that Manxmen have three legs and the other that Manx cats have no tails But whatever the popular conception or misconception of Man and its people I shall assume that what you ask from me is that simple knowledge of simple things which has come to me by the accident of my parentage I must confess to you at the outset that I am not much of a hand at grave history Facts and figures I cannot expound with authority But I know the history of the Isle of Man can see it clear can see it whole and perhaps it will content you if I can show you the soul of it and make it to live before you In attempting to traverse the history I feel like one who carries a dark lantern through ten dark centuries I turn the bull s eye on this incident and that take a peep here and there a white light now and then a blank darkness Those ten centuries are full of lusty fights victories vanquishments quarrels peacemaking shindies big and little rumpus solemn and ridiculous clouds of dust regal dust political dust and religious dust you know the way of it But beneath it all and behind it all lies the real true living human heart of Manxland I want to show it to you if you will allow me to spare the needful time from facts and figures It will get you close to Man and its people and it is not to be found in the history books And now first we Manxmen are islanders It is not everybody who lives on an island that is an islander You know what I mean

I mean by an islander one whose daily life is affected by the constant presence of the sea This is possible in a big island if it is far enough away from the rest of the world Iceland for example but it is inevitable in a little one The sea is always present with Manxmen Everything they do everything they say gets the colour and shimmer of the sea The sea goes into their bones it comes out at their skin Their talk is full of it They buy by it they sell by it they quarrel by it they fight by it they swear by it they pray by it Of course they are not conscious of this Only their degenerate son myself to wit a chiel among them takin notes knows how the sea exudes from the Manxmen Say you ask if the Governor is at home If he is not what is the answer He s not on the island sir You inquire for the best hotel So and so is the best hotel on the island sir You go to a Manx fair and hear a farmer selling a cow Aw says he she s a ter ble gran craythuer for milkin sir and for butter maybe there isn the lek of her on the island sir Coming out of church you listen to the talk of two old Manxwomen discussing the preacher Well well ma am well well Aw the voice at him and the prayers and the beautiful texes There isn the lek of him on the island at all at all Always the island the island the island or else the boats and going out to the herrings We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

Hall Caine Vivien Allen, 1997-07-01 This first full biography of the Victorian romantic novelist Hall Caine traces his life from childhood in Liverpool through his time as housemate to Dante Gabriel Rossetti and association with members of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood to his triumphant career as a popular novelist Caine a swashbuckling character who might have figured in one of his own novels wrote fifteen novels and many non fiction works Vivien Allen has been able to take advantage of Caine s family papers and letters and living in the Isle of Man is well placed to write about this half forgotten author of Manx descent who made his home there from 1896 until his death in 1931 The book contains letters to Hall Caine from the American Dr Francis Tumblety who has been recently identified as the probable Jack the Ripper These letters were mentioned in the Channel 4 UK documentary Jack the Ripper 1996 Much of the archive material was accessed with the assistance of the New York Public Library and the New York Theatre Museum

The Selected Works of Sir Hall Caine Sir Hall Caine, Old Deemster Christian of Ballawhaine was a hard man hard on the outside at all events They called him Iron Christian and people said Don t turn that iron hand against you Yet his character was stamped with nobleness as well as strength He was not a man of icy nature but he loved to gather icicles about him There was fire enough underneath at which he warmed his old heart when alone but he liked the air to be congealed about his face He was a man of a closed soul One had to wrench open the dark chamber where he kept his feelings but the man who had done that had uncovered his nakedness and he cut him off for ever That was how it happened with his son the father of Philip He had two sons the elder was an impetuous creature a fiery spirit one of the masterful souls who want the restraint of the curb if they are not to hurry headlong into the abyss Old Deemster Christian had called this boy Thomas Wilson after the serene saint who had once been Bishop of Man He was intended however for the law not for the Church The office of Deemster never has been and never can be hereditary yet the Christians of Ballawhaine had been Deemsters through six generations and old Iron Christian expected that Thomas Wilson Christian would succeed him But there was enough uncertainty about the succession to make merit of more value than precedent in the selection and so the old man had brought up his son to the English bar and afterwards called him to practise in the Manx one The young fellow had not altogether rewarded his father s endeavours During his residence in England he had acquired certain modern doctrines which were highly obnoxious to the old Deemster New views on property new ideas about woman and marriage new theories concerning religion always re christened superstition the usual barnacles of young vessels fresh from unknown waters but the old man was no shipwright in harbour who has learnt the art of removing them without injury to the hull The Deemster knew these notions when he met with them in the English newspapers There was something awesome in their effect on his stay at home imagination as of vices confusing and difficult to true men that walk steadily but above all very far off over the mountains and across the sea like distant cities of Sodom only waiting for Sodom s doom And yet lo here they were in a twinkling shunted and shot into his own house and his own stackyard
