Lives And Voices Sources In European Womens History:

Lives and Voices Lisa DiCaprio, Merry E. Wiesner, 2001 Anthologizes primary source materials about women's lives and presents an overview of the variety of women's experiences dating from ancient Mesopotamia to contemporary Bosnia including Plato Christine de Pizan Mary Wollstonecraft and Virginia Woolf as well as sources that have never before been published in English The collection ranges widely in terms of topic social class and geography both male and female authored texts are included to present a range of normative descriptive and reflective materials Back cover

Women in European Culture and Society Deborah Simonton, 2017-09-19 Women in European Culture and Society A Sourcebook includes a range of transnational sources which encompass the history of women in Europe from the beginning of the eighteenth century right up to the present day Including documents from across Europe from France and Germany to Estonia Spain and Russia organized in a broad chronological spread the diversity of the sources included in the book is unique including many never translated into English before Deborah Simonton offers detailed interpretive introductions that analyse and contextualize the sources A central feature is its exploration of how women operated within gendered worlds and used their skills and abilities to shape and claim their own identities and to engage with how they contributed as practitioners to shaping European culture and society With over 200 sources the book allows us to hear women's voices as they articulate their understandings of their worlds and helps capture a sense of women's motivations options and choices as they understood them allowing readers to focus on either a period or a theme and providing a comparative resource Ideal for use on its own or as a companion volume to Simonton's other major work Women in European Culture and Society Gender Skill and Identity since 1700 this sourcebook is an invaluable collection offering vivid first hand accounts of women's lives

The Routledge History of Women in Europe Since 1700 Deborah Simonton, 2006-04-27 This landmark publication collects the essays of the leading women's historians and provides the most coherent overview of women's role and place in Western Europe from the beginning of the eighteenth century to the twentieth century

New Perspectives on European Women's Legal History Sara L. Kimble, Marion Röwekamp, 2016-07-01 This book integrates women's history and legal studies within the broader context of modern European history in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Sixteen contributions from fourteen countries explore the ways in which the law contributes to the social construction of gender They analyze questions of family law and international law and highlight the politics of gender in the legal professions in a variety of historical social and national settings including Eastern Southern Western Northern and Central Europe Focusing on different legal cultures they show us the similarities and differences in the ways the law has shaped the contours of women and men's lives in powerful ways They also show how women have used legal knowledge to struggle for their equal rights on the national and transnational level The chapters address the interconnectedness of the history of feminism legislative reforms and women's citizenship and build a foundation for a comparative vision of women's legal history in modern Europe

between the Wars Angela Kimyongür, 2017-11-30 The central aim of this interdisciplinary book is to make visible the intentionality behind the forgetting of European women's contributions during the period between the two world wars in the context of politics culture and society It also seeks to record and analyse women's agency in the construction and reconstruction of Europe and its nation states after the First World War and thus to articulate ways in which the writing of women's history necessarily entails the rewriting of everyone's history By showing that the erasure of women's texts from literary and cultural history was not accidental but was ideologically motivated the essays explicitly and implicitly contribute to debates surrounding canon formation Other important topics are women's political activism during the period antifascism the contributions made by female journalists the politics of literary production genre women's relationship with and contributions to the avant garde women's professional lives and women's involvement in voluntary associations In bringing together the work of scholars whose fields of expertise are diverse but whose interests converge on the inter war period the volume invites readers to make connections and comparisons across the whole spectrum of women's political social and cultural activities throughout Europe

Reshaping Women's History Julie A. Gallagher, Barbara Winslow, 2018-09-25 Award winning women scholars from nontraditional backgrounds have often negotiated an academic track that leads through figurative and sometimes literal minefields Their life stories offer inspiration but also describe heartrending struggles and daunting obstacles Reshaping Women's History presents autobiographical essays by eighteen accomplished scholar activists who persevered through poverty or abuse medical malpractice or family disownment civil war or genocide As they illuminate their own unique circumstances the authors also address issues all too familiar to women in the academy financial instability the need for mentors explaining gaps in resumes caused by outside events and coping with gendered family demands biases and expectations Eye opening and candid Reshaping Women's History shows how adversity and the triumph over it enriches scholarship and spurs extraordinary efforts to affect social change Contributors Frances L Buss Nupur Chaudhuri Lisa DiCaprio Julie R Enszer Catherine Fosl Midori Green La Shonda Mims Stephanie Moore Grey Osterud Barbara Ransby Linda Reese Annette Rodriguez Linda Rupert Kathleen Sheldon Donna Sinclair Rickie Solinger Pamela Stewart Waaseyaa sin Christine Sy and Ann Marie Wilson
