Christina McCall,2008-05-01 In February 1956 a remarkable young woman named Christina McCall began her working life as an editorial secretary at Maclean's magazine. It was a legendary time there when the likes of Pierre Berton, Robert Fulford, June Callwood, Peter Gzowski and Peter C. Newman graced the magazine's pages. McCall would come to join that illustrious group and be considered not only one of the best political writers of her generation but a pioneer for women in journalism and one of Canada's most brilliant minds. For the first time the best of McCall's articles and essays have been collected in one definitive volume alongside excerpts from her unfinished memoirs. Covering topics from the Alberta oil boom to the rise of divorce rates in Canada to in-depth profiles of the Ottawa establishment, McCall's clear-eyed observations are not only laced with insight, humour and compassion, they continue to be relevant today. Ebony, 1988-12 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing. Founded in 1945 by John H. Johnson, it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine.

Lonely Emily White,2010-02-09 A brave and revealing examination of an overlooked affliction that affects one in four Canadians. Despite having a demanding job, good friends and a supportive family, Emily White spent many of her nights and weekends alone at home, trying to understand why she felt so disconnected from everyone. To keep up the facade of an active social life and hide the painful truth that she was suffering from severe loneliness, the successful young lawyer often lied to those around her and to herself. In this insightful, soul-baring and illuminating memoir, White chronicles her battle to understand and overcome this debilitating condition and contends that chronic loneliness deserves the same attention as other mental difficulties such as depression. Right now, loneliness is something few people are willing to admit to, she writes. There's no need for this silence, no need for the shame and self-blame it creates. By investigating the science of loneliness, challenging its stigma, encouraging other lonely people to talk about their struggles and defining one person's experience, Lonely redefines how we look at loneliness and helps those afflicted see and understand their mood in an entirely new light, ultimately providing solace and hope. It is a moving, compassionate and important book about a topic that is affecting more among us each day. He's History, You're Not Erica

Manfred,2009-05-05 In He's History, You're Not Surviving Divorce After 40, Erica Manfred shares her own divorce experience as well as the advice of experts, with specific sections tailored to women in their 40s, 50s and 60s. Manfred was left for a younger woman in 2003 and eventually learned to both survive and thrive. After educating herself in the areas many women have barely even thought of when considering divorce, she is the kind of girlfriend a woman needs when facing both menopause and the trauma of divorce. She can help save divorcees lots of anguish and lots of cash. HE'S HISTORY, YOU'RE NOT discusses how to avoid kiss-of-death marriage counselors to determine if reconciliation is possible. Find an affordable divorce lawyer who does not snort scornfully at the word mediation. Survive the first worst year. Deal with your adult or teen kids who can be just as devastated as small children. Get back to work or find a new career. Age discrimination does not have to stop you. Use the Internet to date the Viagra generation. Restore your self-esteem despite body parts that have succumbed to gravity Forgive the bastard and yourself and finally move on and much more Ebony ,1988-08 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine
