

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a landscape at sunset or sunrise. A single, dark, leafy tree stands in the center foreground on a grassy hill. In the background, there are rolling hills and a body of water reflecting the sky. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow.

Chaucer's Afterlife Kathleen Forni, 2013-03-13 This study explores Chaucer's present day cultural reputation by way of popular culture In just the past two decades his texts have been adapted to a wide variety of popular genres including television stage comic book hip hop science fiction horror romance and crime fiction This cultural recycling involves a variety of functions but Chaucer's primary association is with the idea of pilgrimage and the prevailing tenor is populist satire The target is not only cultural elitism but also the dominant discourse of professional Chaucerians Academics in turn may have doubts about the value of popular Chaucer popular culture theory however would maintain that such skepticism has less to do with critical discrimination than the assertion of social distinction Nonetheless the fact that Chaucer has a popular afterlife and remains an ideological product over which competing groups lay claim attests to his current cultural vitality

The Butterfly Hatch Richard Vytiniorgu, 2018-12-01 Some of H D's most oft quoted lines have to do with the meaning and value of words they are conditioned to hatch butterflies Yet rather than seeking merely to understand how H D represented the meaning and value of words this volume uses the butterfly hatch as a metaphor for thinking more broadly about the capacity of literary experience to hatch transformed persons butterflies in quest of wisdom in university English studies Dislodging H D from her usual modernist context this book positions her as a thinker and reads her autobiographical prose and recently published work of the 1940s for its ability to offer new insights into such pertinent and interconnected areas as literary contexts imagination and personal and social transformation H D has in her own words always been uncanonically seated resistant to rigid classification the texture of her work celebrates internal existential resonances that evidence the emergence of personality The author capitalizes on this facet of H D s work and uncanonically seats her in conversation with the neglected literary theorist Louise Rosenblatt 19042005 whose transactional contribution uniquely fuses critical theory politics philosophy and educational vision This book synthesizes the work of H D and Rosenblatt to create an emergent personalist theory of literary experience in the quest for wisdom crystallizing links between philosophical anthropology aesthetics pedagogy and the politics of human relations Benefiting from access to unpublished material housed at Columbia New York and Yale universities Vytiniorgu combines analysis and theorizing to offer a significant pedagogically inflected intervention in literary studies arguing that university English studies must incorporate critical and pedagogical vantages which open a window on wisdom as well as knowledge

Shattering Minds Anna Ovaska,2023-09-07 This study offers a new perspective on unusual and unsettling experiences that are often interpreted as mental illnesses and on the techniques through which literary representations invite readerly responses and engagement The book examines how four Finnish modernist writers Helvi Hämäläinen Jorma Korpela Timo K. Mukka and Maria Vaara construct experiences of shattering and distress as bodily experiences that are embedded in the social and material world and entangled with social and cultural norms that govern subjectivity gender and sexuality Drawing on narrative theory theories of embodied cognition phenomenology of illness and feminist theory the analyses show how literary works can invite readers to respond emotionally and to reflect on our views of the human mind and its interaction with the world The book sheds light on the fictional portrayals and techniques of representation and on the ethics of narrating and reading about painful experiences It also illuminates the ways the mind body consciousness and mental distress are discussed in Finnish modernist literature and situates the texts in the international modernist tradition      Writing Spaces: Readings on Writings, Vol. 2 Charles Lowe, Pavel Zemliansky, Volumes in Writing Spaces Readings on Writing offer multiple perspectives on a wide range of topics about writing In each chapter authors present their unique views insights and strategies for writing by addressing the undergraduate reader directly Drawing on their own experiences these teachers as writers invite students to join in the larger conversation about the craft of writing Consequently each essay functions as a standalone text that can easily complement other selected readings in writing or writing intensive courses across the disciplines at any level      Lives Lived, Lives Imagined Sabrina Reed, 2022-11-04 Perceptive controversial topical and achingly funny Miriam Toews's books have earned her a place at the forefront of Canadian literature In this first monograph on Toews's work Sabrina Reed examines the interplay of trauma and resilience in the author's fiction Reed skillfully demonstrates how Toews situates resilience across key themes including the home as both a source of trauma and an inspiration for resilient action the road trip as a search for resolution and redemption and the reframing of the Mennonite diaspora as an escape from patriarchal oppression The deaths by suicide of Toews's father and sister stand out as the most shocking and tragic of the author's biographical details and Reed explores Toews's use of autofiction as a reparative gesture in the face of this trauma Written in an accessible style that will appeal to both scholars and devotees of Toews's work Lives Lived Lives Imagined is a timely examination of Toews's oeuvre and a celebration of fiction's ability to simultaneously embody compassion and anger joy and sadness and to brave the personal and communal oppressions of politics religion family society and mental illness      Career Opportunities in Writing T.
