Views and Viewmakers of Urban America John William Reps,1984 Union list catalog of the lithographic views of cities and towns made during the 19th century      Design History Dennis P. Doordan,1996-03-06 his anthology compiled from volumes 3 10 of Design Issues includes material from areas seldom discussed in existing surveys and will facilitate the general discourse within the design community on a wide range of conceptual and methodological issues of contemporary design history Design history has emerged in recent years as a significant field of scholarly research and critical reflection With their interest in the conceptualization production and consumption of objects large and small unique or multiple anonymous or signed and environments ephemeral or enduring public or private design historians investigate the multiple ways in which intentionally produced objects environments and experiences both shape and reflect their historical moments This anthology compiled from volumes 3 10 of Design Issues includes material from areas seldom discussed in existing surveys and will facilitate the general discourse within the design community on a wide range of conceptual and methodological issues of contemporary design history Individual essays investigate various aspects of design in the modern era They provide fresh insights on familiar figures such as Harley Earl and Norman Bel Geddes and shed new light on neglected aspects of design history such as the history of women in early American graphic design or the history of modern design in China The essays are grouped in three broad categories Graphic Design Design in the American Corporate Milieu and Design in the Context of National Experiences Contributors David Brett Bradford R Collins Dennis P Doordan David Gartman Gyorgy Haiman Larry D Luchmansingh Roland Marchand Enric Satu Mitchell Schwarzer Paul Shaw Svetlana Sylvestrova Ellen Mazur Thomson Matthew Turner John Turpin Shou Zhi Wang A Design Issues Reader      Amateurs, Photography, and the Mid-Victorian Imagination Grace Seiberling,1986-05 This book results from research which was begun with all the casualness but inherent seriousness of the nineteenth century amateur I had the privilege of frequent access to the archives of the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House and began to go through the nineteenth century photographs in a systematic way I wanted to go beyond the clichés of the history of photography as a series of often reproduced masterworks and to find out something about the history of seeing or at least of thinking about images in the nineteenth century Pr face      History of Modern Design Third Edition David Raizman,2023-08-31 This unparalleled and wide ranging book surveys the history of applied arts and industrial design from the eighteenth century to the present day exploring the dynamic relationship between design and manufacturing and the technological social and commercial contexts in which this relationship has developed In this extensively revised and expanded third edition David Raizman addresses international questions more fully with the addition of six Global Inspiration sections that examine the contributions of non Western traditions rendering the very notion of a national design debatable The text also pays closer attention to issues of gender race and climate change and their impact on design With over 580 illustrations mostly in colour History of Modern Design is an inclusive well balanced introduction to a field of increasing scholarly and interdisciplinary research and provides students in design with historical perspectives of their chosen fields of study Science Periodicals in Nineteenth-Century Britain Gowan Dawson, Bernard Lightman, Sally Shuttleworth, Jonathan R. Topham, 2020-03-02 Periodicals played a vital role in the developments in science and medicine that transformed nineteenth century Britain Proliferating from a mere handful to many hundreds of titles they catered to audiences ranging from gentlemanly members of metropolitan societies to working class participants in local natural history clubs In addition to disseminating authorized scientific discovery they fostered a sense of collective identity among their geographically dispersed and often socially disparate readers by facilitating the reciprocal interchange of ideas and information As such they offer privileged access into the workings of scientific communities in the period The essays in this volume set the historical exploration of the scientific and medical periodicals of the era on a new footing examining their precise function and role in the making of nineteenth century science and enhancing our vision of the shifting communities and practices of science in the period This radical rethinking of the scientific journal offers a new approach to the reconfiguration of the sciences in nineteenth century Britain and sheds instructive light on contemporary debates about the purpose practices and price of scientific journals

Medieval Art and Architecture after the Middle Ages Alyce A. Jordan, Janet T. Marquardt, 2009-01-14 Medieval Art and Architecture after the Middle Ages explores the endurance of and nostalgia for medieval monuments through their reception in later periods specifically illuminating the myriad ways in which tangible and imaginary artifacts of the Middle Ages have served to articulate contemporary aspirations and anxieties The essays in this interdisciplinary collection examine the afterlife of medieval works through their preservation restoration appropriation and commodification in America Great Britain and across Europe from the sixteenth to the twentieth century From the evocation of metaphors and tropes to monumental projects of restoration and recreation medieval visual culture has had a tremendous purchase in the construction of political religious and cultural practices of the Modern era The authors assembled here engage a diverse spectrum of works from Irish ruins and a former Florentine prison to French churches and American department stores and an equally diverse array of media ranging from architecture and manuscripts to embroidery monumental sculpture and metalwork With applications not only to the study of art and architecture but also encompassing such varied fields as commerce city planning education literature collecting and exhibition design this copiously illustrated anthology comprises a significant contribution to the study of medieval art and medievalism      Printing Colour 1700-1830 Margaret Morgan Grasselli, Elizabeth Savage, 2024-12-27 From the invention of four colour separation printing c 1710 to the introduction of chromolithography c 1830 Printing Colour 1700 1830 offers the first survey of eighteenth century colour printmaking in and beyond western Europe dynamically expanding print history to include such diverse consumer goods as clothing wallpapers and pottery      Renaissance de L'enluminure Médiévale Jan de Maeyer, 2007 KADOC Artes 8 The art of illumination usually associated with the Middle Ages experienced a spectacular revival in nineteenth century Western Europe This completely different context gave the illuminations another import The output of the lay and religious workshops reveals a great artistic stylistic technical and thematic diversity The works illuminated go far beyond the world of exceptional and precious manuscripts and include many occasional documents and devotional images Richly illustrated with unpublished masterworks The Revival of Medieval Illumination is an overview of the form by fifteen authors who do not limit their approach to the traditional questions of art history Rather they explore the historical sociocultural ideological and religious components of the revival which changed according to time and country in order to understand the evolution and success of the art of illumination in the long nineteenth century      Reading Popular Prints 1790-1870 Brian Maidment, 2001-12-07 Each chapter of this stimulating book collects a wide variety of images show the different ways that historical events can be represented Metal and wood engravings lithographs woodcuts etchings watercolors and drawings all reflect changing attitudes towards gender politics the family education and industrialization This revised second edition has many new illustrations which further assist the interpretation of popular graphic images from the 18th and 19th centuries      Selling Jerusalem Annabel Jane Wharton, 2006-08-15 Selling Jerusalem offers an introduction to the explosive combination of piety and capital at work in religious objects and global politics It is sure to interest students and scholars of art history economic history popular culture religion and architecture      Print, Manuscript and the Search for Order, 1450-1830 David McKitterick, 2003-07-10 See      Science in the Romantic Era David Knight, 2016-03-31 First published in 1998 The Romantic Era was a time when society religion and other beliefs and science were all in flux The idea that the universe was a great clock and that men were little clocks all built by a divine watchmaker was giving way to a more dynamic and pantheistic way of thinking A new language was invented for chemistry replacing metaphor with algebra and scientific illustration came to play the role of a visual language deeply involved with theory A scientific community came gradually into being as the 19th century wore on The papers which compose this book have appeared in a wide range of books and journals together with the new introduction they illuminate science and its context in the Romantic Era and follow its effects in the 19th century      "Material Women, 1750?950 " Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 With the volume's global perspective and comparative framework this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly examination of consumption by taking the topic of women material culture and consumption into new arenas The essays explore the connections between consumption and subjectivity they build upon and complicate the idea that consumption as a form of meaning making is key to the construction of gendered classed and national identities Providing a cross cultural perspective on consumption the essays are historically specific case studies While some essays examine women s consumption in a range of Anglophone and Francophone locations primarily in Britain France Australia Canada and the US other essays on Chinese Senegalese Indian and Mexican women s consumption particularly as it relates to fashion and design provide a comparative framework that will recalibrate ongoing discussions about consumption and domesticity dress and identity and desire and subjectivity In addition to its focus on gender and consumption this volume addresses gender and collecting exploring the tensions between accumulation and systematic collecting Also examined is the way in which the display of collected objects in Impressionists paintings in mass produced illustrations in the glass cases of museums and department stores participates in the construction of particular identities as well as serving as a kind of value producing material practice
