Pudd'nhead Wilson and Those Extraordinary Twins Mark Twain, 2016-05-04 The two narratives published together in The Tragedy of Pudd'nhead Wilson and the Comedy Those Extraordinary Twins are overflowing with spectacular events Twain shows us conjoined twins babies exchanged in the cradle acts of cross dressing and racial masquerade duels a lynching and a murder mystery Pudd'nhead Wilson tells the story of babies one of mixed race and the other white exchanged in their cradles while Those Extraordinary Twins is a farcical tale of conjoined twins Although the stories were long viewed as flawed narratives their very incongruities offer a fascinating portrait of key issues race disability and immigration facing the United States in the final decades of the nineteenth century Hsuan Hsu's introduction traces the history of literary critics response to these works from the confusion of Twain's contemporaries to the keen interest of current scholars Extensive historical appendices provide contemporary materials on race discourse legal contexts and the composition and initial reception of the texts

Materiality and Popular Culture Anna Malinowska, Karolina Lebek, 2016-08-12 This book critically approaches contemporary meanings of materiality and discusses ways in which we understand experience and engage with objects through popular culture in our private social and professional lives Appropriating Arjun Appadurai's famous phrase the social life of things with which he inspired scholars to take material culture more seriously and as a result treat it as an important and revealing area of cultural studies the book explores the relationship between material culture and popular practices and points to the impact they have exerted on our co-existence with material worlds in the conditions of late modernity

Carnival and Literature in Early Modern England Jennifer C. Vaught, 2016-04-08 Carnival and Literature in Early Modern England explores the elite and popular festive materials appropriated by authors during the English Renaissance in a wide range of dramatic and non-dramatic texts Although historical records of rural urban and courtly seasonal customs in early modern England exist only in fragmentary form Jennifer Vaught traces the sustained impact of festivals and rituals on the plays and poetry of sixteenth and seventeenth century English writers She focuses on the diverse ways in which Shakespeare Spenser Marlowe Dekker Jonson Milton and Herrick incorporated the carnivalesque in their works Further she demonstrates how these early modern texts were used and misused by later writers performers and inventors of spectacles notably Mardi Gras krewes organizing parades in the American Deep South The works featured here often highlight violent conflicts between individuals of different ranks ethnicities and religions which the author argues reflect the social realities of the time These Renaissance writers responded to republican egalitarian notions of liberty for the populace with radical support ambivalence or conservative opposition Ultimately the vital folkloric dimension of these plays and poems challenges the notion that canonical works by Shakespeare and his contemporaries belong only to high and not to low culture      The Activity Year Book Anni Bowden,Nancy Lewthwaite,2009-03-15 For care staff looking after older people coming up with ideas for activities to keep their residents engaged and stimulated can be challenging The Activity Year Book solves this problem offering week by week themed activities It has activities relating to every important date in the calendar encouraging discussion around these events      Hidden in My Heart Scripture Memory Bible NLT ,2016-09 2017 ECPA Christian Book Award Finalist Bibles category Scripture memorization grounds kids in the faith equips them for the future and solidifies relationships with Christ family and others The Hidden in My Heart Scripture Memory Bible was created to encourage kids not only to read God s Word but also to hide it deep within their hearts One hundred of the Bible s core verses have been set to music by renowned children s author and song writer Stephen Elkins The 100 songs include a variety of genres and are available in the New Living Translation New International Version and King James Version and all songs are free with the purchase of the Bible Additional interactive features encourage school age kids to engage with the Word in every place of their life      Ancient Civilizations Chris Scarre,Brian Fagan,2016-03-10 Ancient Civilizations offers a comprehensive and straightforward account of the world s first civilizations and how they were discovered drawing on many avenues of inquiry including archaeological excavations surveys laboratory work highly specialized scientific investigations and both historical and ethnohistorical records This book covers the earliest civilizations and the great powers in the Near East moving on to the first Aegean civilizations the Mediterranean world in the first millennium Imperial Rome northeast Africa the divine kings in southeast Asia and empires in East Asia as well as early states in the Americas and Andean civilization Ancient Civilizations includes a number of features to support student learning a wealth of images including several new illustrations feature boxes which expand on key sites finds and written sources and an extensive guide to further reading With new perceptions of the origin and collapse of states including a review of the issue of sustainability this fourth edition has been extensively updated in the light of spectacular new discoveries and the latest theoretical advances Examining the world s pre industrial civilizations from a multidisciplinary perspective and offering a comparative analysis of the field which explores the connections between all civilizations around the world Scarre and Fagan both established authorities on world prehistory provide a valuable introduction to pre industrial civilizations in all their brilliant diversity      Carceral Fantasies Alison Griffiths,2016-08-23 A groundbreaking contribution to the study of nontheatrical film exhibition Carceral Fantasies tells the little known story of how cinema found a home in the U S penitentiary system and how the prison emerged as a setting and narrative trope in modern cinema Focusing on films shown in prisons before 1935 Alison Griffiths explores the unique experience of viewing cinema while incarcerated and the complex cultural roots of cinematic renderings of prison life Griffiths considers a diverse mix of cinematic genres from early actualities and reenactments of notorious executions to reformist exposés of the 1920s She connects an early fascination with cinematic images of punishment and execution especially electrocutions to the attractions of the nineteenth century carnival electrical wonder show and Phantasmagoria a ghost show using magic lantern projections and special effects Griffiths draws upon convict writing prison annual reports and the popular press obsession with prison house cinema to document the integration of film into existing reformist and educational activities and film's psychic extension of flights of fancy undertaken by inmates in their cells Combining penal history with visual and film studies and theories surrounding media's sensual effects Carceral Fantasies illuminates how filmic representations of the penal system enacted ideas about modernity gender the body and the public shaping both the social experience of cinema and the public's understanding of the modern prison
