Hermeneutics in the Context of Pastoral and Catechesis - Locus for Dialogue with Culture in the Missio Ecclesiae Kingsley Anagolu, 2019 The authority oriented pastoral catechetical planning method which characterizes the African mission transmission has been problematic as it subtly neglects in its pedagogy the culture and daily life of the subject Hence the people operate a Christian cultural double standard This book proffers an alternative as the author makes the concept of the relationship hermeneutics model to a creative writing that aims towards an empirical application in the theology of inculturation which is a subject oriented and dialogical method that draws its strength from the incarnation prototype

The Christian as Imitator of Christ Francis Kofi Achampong, 2025-04-25 Two and a half billion people worldwide profess to be Christians These include people who espouse ideas about White Christianity Christian nationalism Christian libertarianism racial segregation and racial purity It also includes people who see assistance to the poor as handouts that perpetuate poverty The latter group includes people who espouse ideas about accountable individualism where people are expected to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps and become self sufficient as a sign of faith in God's grace and a perversion of crucicentrism which takes the position that it is compassionate to allow poor people to suffer because it can drive them to the cross and salvation in Christ Reports and Actions of the General Convention American Lutheran Church (1961-1987), 1980 Congregational Song in the Worship of the Church William L. Hooper, 2020-03-20 This book is a study of how congregational song developed and has been used in the worship of Western churches in general and specifically churches in the United States Beginning with the worship of ancient peoples the Hebrews and early Christians and continuing to the present the author examines historically how song has been and is used as an intentional sacred ritual action like prayer or Scripture reading Written primarily as an introductory text for college and seminary students the overall goal is to make a historical journey with the people events and ideas from which have evolved the various types of song we have in American worship today To help readers think more deeply about the material study questions are given at the end of each chapter National Union Catalog, 1972 Includes entries for maps and atlases Strange Rites Tara Isabella Burton, 2020-06-16 A sparkingly strange odyssey through the kaleidoscope of America's new spirituality the cults practices high priests and prophets of our supposedly post religion age Fifty five years have passed since the cover of Time magazine proclaimed the death of God and while participation in mainstream religion has indeed plummeted Americans have never been more spiritually busy While rejecting traditional worship in unprecedented numbers today's Americans are embracing a kaleidoscopic panoply of spiritual traditions rituals and subcultures from astrology and witchcraft to SoulCycle and the alt right As the Internet makes it ever easier to find new tribes and consumer capitalism forever threatens to turn spirituality into a lifestyle brand remarkably modern American religious culture is undergoing a revival comparable with the Great Awakenings of centuries past Faith is experiencing not a decline but a Renaissance Disillusioned with organized religion and political establishments alike more and more Americans are seeking out spiritual paths driven by intuition not institutions In Strange Rites religious scholar and commentator Tara Isabella Burton visits with the techno utopians of Silicon Valley Satanists and polyamorous communities witches from Bushwick wellness junkies and social justice activists and devotees of Jordan Peterson proving Americans are not abandoning religion but remixing it In search of the deep and the real they are finding meaning purpose ritual and communities in ever newer ever stranger ways Library of Congress Catalogs
