The Sing Sing Files Dan Slepian, 2024-09-10 An NBC Dateline producer's cinematic account of his two decade journey navigating the broken criminal justice system to help free six innocent men. In 2002 Dan Slepian a veteran producer for NBC's Dateline received a tip from a Bronx homicide detective that two men were serving twenty five years to life in prison for a 1990 murder they did not commit. Haunted by what the detective had told him Slepian began an investigation of the case that eventually resulted in freedom for the two men and launched Slepian on a two decade personal and professional journey into a deeply flawed justice system fiercely resistant to rectifying or even acknowledging its mistakes and their consequences. The Sing Sing Files: One Journalist Six Innocent Men and a Twenty Year Fight for Justice is Slepian's account of challenging that system. The story follows Slepian on years of prison visits, court hearings and street reporting that led to a series of powerful Dateline episodes and eventually to freedom for four other men and to an especially deep and lasting friendship with one of them Jon Adrian JJ Velazquez. From his cell in Sing Sing JJ aided Slepian in his investigations until his own release in 2021 after decades in prison. Like Bryan Stevenson's Just Mercy The Sing Sing Files is a deeply personal account of wrongful imprisonment and the flaws in our justice system and a powerful argument for reckoning and accountability. Slepian's extraordinary book at once painful and full of hope shines a light on an injustice whose impact the nation has only begun to confront.
