Living As A River Finding Fearlessness In The Face Of Change:

Living as a River Bodhipaksa, 2010-10-01 To face reality is to embrace change to resist change is to suffer This is the liberating insight that unfolds with Living as a River A masterful investigation of the nature of self this eloquent blend of current science and time honored spiritual insight is meant to free us from the fear of impermanence in a world defined by change An interesting lively and genuinely illuminating teaching of dharma Jack Kornfield author of A Path with Heart A Guide Through the Perils and Promises of Spiritual Life At a time when it s increasingly challenging to find clear and honest direction on the spiritual path Living as a River offers contemporary insight into an ancient practice and wise counsel we can trust This book is both beautifully written and useful to all serious seekers Mariana Caplan PhD author of Eyes Wide Open Cultivating Discernment on the Spiritual Path and Halfway Up the Mountain The Error of Premature Claims to Enlightenment The primary vehicle for this journey is Buddhism s traditional Six Element Practice a deconstructive process of deep reflection that helps us let go of the belief in a separate static self the root of unhappiness Bodhipaksa takes readers through a systematic yet poetic analysis of the self that supports the realization of A sense of spaciousness and expansiveness that transcends the limitations of the physical body Profound gratitude awe and a feeling of belonging as we witness the extent of our connectedness with the universe Freedom from the psychological burden caused by clinging to a false identity The relaxed experience of consciousness pure and bright Engrossing and incisive Living as a River is at once an empowering guide and a meditative practice we can turn to again and again to overcome our fear of change and align joyfully with the natural unfolding of creation

Living Landscapes Christopher Key Chapple, 2020-04-01 Explores the role of meditation on the five elements in the practice of Yoga In Living Landscapes Christopher Key Chapple looks at the world of ritual as enacted in three faiths of India He begins with an exploration of the relationship between the body and the world as found in the cosmological cartography of S khya philosophy which highlights the interplay between consciousness puru a and activity prak ti a process that gives rise to earth water fire air and space He then turns to the progressive explication of these five great elements in Buddhism Jainism Advaita Tantra and Ha ha Yoga and includes translations from the Vedas and the Pur as of Hinduism the Buddhist and Jain S tras and select animal fables from early Hinduism Buddhism and Jainism Chapple also describes his own pilgrimages to the Great Stupa at Shambhala Mountain Center in Colorado the five elemental temples pa camah bh ta mandir in south India and the Jaina cosmology complex in Hastinapur An appendix with practical instructions that integrate Yoga postures with meditative reflections on the five elements is included Chapple has brought together material that informs and educates others into the depth and profundity of what Yoga is and its relevance today It is a timely work in our recognition of the need for greater reflection contemplation awakening and action for the benefit of all life Ian Whicher coeditor of Yoga The Indian Tradition

Geography of Loss Patti Digh, 2013-12-23 This extraordinary book is borne of loss the loss of love of certainty and assuredness of knowing where we are or who we are of beauty and youth of health of life itself of privacy and of roles and of knowing When someone or something we love leaves us we suddenly walk alone into new territory without them We become strangers in new lands places where the landscape is unalterably changed where the center of gravity has somehow faltered and become weak making us feel as if we might fall off the surface of the earth Sometimes that moment of loss defines the rest of our lives becoming a center to our compass forever This unique book is a guidebook an atlas of those experiences of loss and grief a map for living through and into change and impermanence to moving on anew You are the navigator through the three main sections Embrace what is walk into your new landscape Honor what was be grateful for your old landscape Love what will be live into your future landscape Illustrated throughout with art submitted from around the world this book is an atlas of experience utilizing map imagery and the richly metaphoric evocative and functional language of geography to help you place yourself on your own journey to find your way through helpful exercises and an empathetic expert guide
