Living Fashion Daily Womens Wear 1750 1950:

Fashion Curating Annamari Vänskä, Hazel Clark, 2017-12-28 As the practice of fashion curation extends into commercial galleries public and retail spaces and even to the individual self professional concepts of curating are undergoing rapid change Today everyone is seemingly able to curate but where does this leave the traditional understanding of curation as clothing collected and displayed in a museum This thought provoking volume explores the practice of fashion curating in the 21st century bridging the gap between methods of display and notions of the curatorial in fashion exhibitions commercial settings and the virtual world From fashion s earliest forays into the museum to creative collaborations between luxury fashion brands and artists this book challenges understandings of fashion curation by drawing on the palpably new spaces places and actors in today s curating scene Exploring poetic and performative museum displays in venues such as the V A Somerset House MoMu and the Royal Ontario Museum alongside the ways that brands such as Dior Chanel and Louis Vuitton have made use of the curatorial in their own commercial strategies Fashion Curating asks pressing questions about controversial funding and collaboration from the commercial fashion sector and the limitations of producing exhibitions that are at the same time critical and popular Bringing together approaches from fashion curators designers and world renowned academics curation is positioned as a critical practice that opens up new ways of conceptualizing and theorizing fashion challenging how we think and what we already know

Advances in Design, Music and Arts Daniel Raposo, João Neves, José Silva, Luísa Correia Castilho, Rui Dias, 2020-09-11 This book presents the outcomes of recent endeavors that will contribute to significant advances in the areas of communication design fashion design interior design and product design music and musicology as well as overlapping areas Gathering the proceedings of the 7th EIMAD conference held on May 14 15 2020 and organized by the School of Applied Arts Campus da Talagueira in Castelo Branco Portugal it proposes new theoretical perspectives and practical research directions in design and music while also discussing teaching practices and some areas of intersection It addresses strategies for communication and culture in a global digital world that take into account key individual and societal needs

Women at Work in Italy (1750-1950) Manuela Mosca, 2024-09-23 This book reconstructs the economic thought of Italian women who produced written sources and of those whose only legacy was their actions The conceptual tools of economic history and the history of economic thought alike are used to reveal the economic ideas of women overlooked by historiography in four fields namely as entrepreneurs workers educators and politicians As for the entrepreneurs the book examines the businesswoman Isabella De Mari Doria eighteenth century and other figures active in both the industrialized and the informal sectors in the nineteenth century The important issues of female employment and wage discrimination based on gender are analyzed taking into account the debates of the period In turn the role of women in economic education in the first half of the twentieth century is reconstructed through the figure of Aurelia Josz an educational entrepreneur who trained female agricultural entrepreneurs managers and teachers and by exploring the presence of women at universities both as students of economics and as educators and researchers Lastly the book takes a closer look at women involved in politics who dealt with economic issues the socialist Anna Kuliscioff the fascist Margherita Grassini Sarfatti and the 21 women who took part in the Italian Constituent Assembly in June 1946 Given its scope the book appeals to scholars and students of the history of economic thought economic history and women s studies

Fashioning the Afropolis Kerstin Pinther,Kristin Kastner,Basile Ndjio,2022-07-14 A revelation Reclaiming fashion from its European history Shane White With a focus on sub Saharan Africa Fashioning the Afropolis provides a range of innovative perspectives on global fashion design dress photography and the body in some of the major cities with a focus on Lagos Johannesburg Dakar and Douala It contributes to the ongoing debates around the globalization of fashion and fashion theory by exploring fashion as a genuine urban phenomenon on the continent and among its diasporas To date fashion and city have not been systematically related to each other in the African context and for too long a western centric gaze has dominated scholarship resulting in the perception of Africa as provincial and its visual arts and textile cultures as static and folkloristic This perspective is all the more distorted given Africa s rich sartorial past With a huge number of tailors ready to adapt and renew clothing reshaping garments into contemporary styles and many cities in Africa becoming hot spots for a steadily growing and well connected scene of fashion designers in the past 20 years the time is ripe for a reevaluation and reconsideration of the fashionscapes of Africa Leading scholars offer an updated empirical and theoretical foundation on which to base new and exciting research on sub Saharan fashion challenging perceptions and offering new insights

"Material Women, 1750-1950" MaureenDaly Goggin,2017-07-05 With the volume s global perspective and comparative framework this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly examination of consumption by taking the topic of women material culture and consumption into new arenas The essays explore the connections between consumption and subjectivity they build upon and complicate the idea that consumption as a form of meaning making is key to the construction of gendered classed and national identities Providing a cross cultural perspective on consumption the essays are historically specific case studies While some essays examine women s consumption in a range of Anglophone and Francophone locations primarily in Britain France Australia Canada and the US other essays on Chinese Senegalese Indian and Mexican women s consumption particularly as it relates to fashion and design provide a comparative framework that will recalibrate ongoing discussions about consumption and domesticity dress and identity and desire and subjectivity In addition to its focus on gender and consumption this volume addresses gender and collecting exploring the tensions between accumulation and systematic collecting Also examined is the way in which the display of collected objects in Impressionists paintings in mass produced illustrations in the glass cases of museums and department stores participates in the construction of particular identities as well as serving as a kind of value producing material practice

The Cambridge Social History of Britain, 1750-1950 F. M. L. Thompson,1990 Whilst in certain quarters it may be fashionable to suppose that there is no such thing as society historians they have had no difficulty in finding their subject The difficulty rather is that an outpouring of research and writing is hard for anyone but the specialist to keep up with the literature or grasp the overall picture In these three volumes as is the tradition in Cambridge Histories a team of specialists has assembled the jigsaw of topical monographic research and presented an interpretation of the development of modern British society since 1750 from three perspectives those of regional communities the working and living environment and social institutions Each volume is self contained and each contribution thematically defined contains its own chronology of the period under review Taken as a whole they offer an authoritative and comprehensive view of the manner and method of the shaping of society in the two centuries of unprecedented demographic and economic change

The Urban Social History of the Middle East, 1750-1950 Peter Sluglett, 2008-12-08 The great cities of the Middle East and North Africa have long attracted the attention and interest of historians With the discovery and wider use over the last few decades of Islamic court records and Ottoman administrative documents our knowledge of Middle Eastern cities between the seventeenth and early twentieth centuries has vastly expanded Drawing upon a treasure trove of documents and using a variety of methodologies the contributors succeed in providing a significant overview of the ways in which Middle Eastern cities can be studied as well as an excellent introduction to current literature in the field

Material Lives Serena Dyer, 2021-01-28 Eighteenth century women told their life stories through making With its compelling stories of women s material experiences and practices Material Lives offers a new perspective on eighteenth century production and consumption Genteel women s making has traditionally been seen as decorative trivial and superficial Yet their material archives forged through fabric samples watercolours dressed prints and dolls garments reveal how women used the material culture of making to record and navigate their lives Material Lives positions women as makers in a consumer society Through fragments of fabric and paper Dyer explores an innovative way of accessing the lives of otherwise obscured women For researchers and students of material culture dress history consumption gender and women s history it offers a rich resource to illuminate the power of needles paintbrushes and scissors
