Living the Mass Dominic Grassi, Joe Paprocki, 2011-10-01 Second Place Liturgy category Catholic Press Association book awards 2012 This little book is a gem From Sunday Mass to Monday mayhem Can the central act of Catholic worship transform our daily lives In the United States only 25% of self proclaimed Catholics attend Mass on a weekly basis Many Catholics believe that far more people would attend if only the homilies were better or the music were more inspiring or the list goes on But best selling authors Fr Dominic Grassi and Joe Paprocki are convinced that the real problem lies not in the Mass itself but in a lack of understanding of how the Mass prepares each person to live day in and day out as a baptized Catholic Christian In

Liturgical Theology Simon Chan issues a call to evangelicals to develop a mature theology of the church an ecclesiology that is grounded in the church's identity as a worshipping community Evangelicals he argues are confused about the meaning and purpose of the church in part because they have an inadequate understanding of Christian worship As a remedy for this ailment Chan presents a coherent theology of the church that pays particular attention to the liturgical practices that have constituted Christian worship throughout the centuries With a seasoned eye and steady hand he guides the reader through these practices and unpacks their significance for theology spirituality and the renewal of evangelicalism in the postmodern era Chan's proposal advances the conversation among evangelicals regarding the relationship between theology and worship In contrast to some theologians who have tended to emphasize a sociological analysis Chan argues that we need to consider what is essential to the church's theological identity Drawing on the larger Christian tradition Chan argues that we discover that identity primarily in the structure and significance of Christian worship
