Beyond Trawlertown Jo Byrne, 2021-12-14 Beyond Trawlertown takes a journey through the British distant water fishery and its port city connections in an era of disruption In 1976 defeat in the Anglo Icelandic Cod Wars saw the British trawling fleet excluded from their traditional hunting grounds Combining with wider global factors the move brought an end to long established trawling practices with profound social economic and cultural repercussions Through a case study of the port of Hull oral history and archival research explore the challenges responses and legacy of rapid change Although the emphasis is on Hull this is far from a local history Hull's position among the world leading distant water pioneers gives the story international significance Focusing on memory lived experience and place the book goes beyond established narratives Personal acts of remembering offer cultural perspectives on how global events and marine policy impact upon the seafaring communities that live with the consequences The Cod Wars signaled an end yet amid the disruption there were also new beginnings And in the wake of an active fishery the rhythms of the past continue to resonate in the negotiation of fishing heritage within the contemporary city Through the convergence of time place and memory this holistic narrative of interweaving stories reveals the intricacies of our human interaction with the marine environment and the aftermath when its threads are broken

Moments for Nothing Gabriele Schwab, 2023-10-24 Samuel Beckett's work has entranced generations of readers with its portrayal of the end times Beckett's characters are preoccupied with death and the specters of cataclysm and extinction overshadow their barren bleak worlds Yet somehow they endure experiencing surreal and often comic repetitions that seem at once to confront finitude and the infinite up to the limits of existence Gabriele Schwab draws on decades of close engagement with Beckett to explore how his work speaks to our current existential anxieties and fears Interweaving critical analysis with personal reflections she shows how Beckett's writing provides unexpected resources for making sense of personal and planetary catastrophes Moments for Nothing examines the ways Beckett's works have taken on new meaning in an era of crises climate change environmental devastation and the COVID 19 pandemic that are defined by both paralyzing stasis and pervasive uncertainty They also offer a bracing depiction of aging and the end of life exploring loneliness vulnerability and decay Beckett's particular vision of the apocalypse and his sense of persistence Schwab argues help us understand our times and even perhaps provide sanctuary and solace Moments for Nothing features insightful close readings of iconic works such as Endgame Happy Days and the trilogy as well as lesser known writings including the thirty five second play Breath which Schwab reconsiders in light of the pandemic

Untimely Interventions Leigh Ross Chambers, 2009-12-22 As atrocity has become characteristic of modern history testimonial writing has become a major twentieth century genre Untimely Interventions relates testimonial writing or witnessing to the cultural situation of aftermath exploring ways in which a culture can be haunted by its own history Ross Chambers argues that culture produces

itself as civilized by denying the forms of collective violence and other traumatic experience that it cannot control In the context of such denial personal accounts of collective disaster can function as a form of counter denial By investigating a range of writing on AIDS the First World War and the Holocaust Chambers shows how such writing produces a rhetorical effect of haunting as it seeks to describe the reality of those experiences culture renders unspeakable Ross Chambers is Professor of Romance Languages at the University of Michigan His other books include Facing It AIDS Diaries and the Death of the Author Memorializing Violence Alison Crosby, Heather Evans, 2025-02-11 Memorializing Violence brings together feminist and queer reflections on the transnational lives of memorialization practices asking what it means to grapple with loss mourning grief and desires to collectively remember and commemorate as well as urges to forget in the face of disparate yet entangled experiences of racialized and gendered colonial imperial militarized and state violence The volume uses a transnational feminist approach to ask How do such efforts in seemingly unconnected remembrance landscapes speak to with and through each other in a world order inflected by colonial imperial and neoliberal logics structures and strictures How do these memorializing initiatives not only formulate within but move through complex transnational flows and circuits and what transpires as they do What does it mean to inhabit loss mourning resistance and refusal through memorialization at this moment and what is at stake in doing so What might transnational feminist analyses of gender race sexuality class and nation have to offer in this regard Living Well in a World Worth Living in for All Kristin Elaine Reimer, Mervi Kaukko, Sally Windsor, Stephen Kemmis, Kathleen Mahon, 2024-06-12 This open access book is the second of a two volume series that explores how people are living well and creating a World Worth Living in for All It engages in deep listening of voices from across the world and considers the role of education in creating a more just and sustainable world for the future The book asks what can be learnt to create change in policy and practice in order to enact praxis It showcases chapters from international authors who discuss current or new projects to address the overarching questions explored in the book It also provides an overview of perspectives that connect both volumes and the individual projects presented together through the lens of practice architectures Living in the Kingdom of God Sigurd Grindheim, 2018-11-06 This brief accessible book offers a unique approach to the theme of the kingdom of God and to biblical theology Sigurd Grindheim explains the whole Bible's teaching on the kingdom of God discussing its implications for the Christian the church and politics Grindheim shows what it means that God rules on earth how his rule is established through the work of Christ and how this rule is embodied by the church today offering a new vision for the church's role in the kingdom putting God's gifts to work African American Women Playwrights Christy Gavin, 2012-10-12 This Guide includes the primary and secondary works and summaries of plays of 15 prominent African American women playwrights including Lorraine Hansberry Ntozake Shange Adrienne Kennedy Alice Childress Zora Neale Hurston Georgia Douglas Johnson During the last 10 to 15 years critical consideration of contemporary as well as earlier black women playwrights has blossomed Plays by black women are

Facilitating Posttraumatic Growth Lawrence G. Calhoun, Richard G. Tedeschi, 1999-07 In this book Calhoun and Tedeschi construct the first systematic framework for clinical efforts to enhance the processes they sum up as posttraumatic growth Posttraumatic growth is the phenomenon of positive change through struggle with even the most horrible sets of circumstances People who experience it tend to describe three general types of change realistically stronger feelings of vulnerability that are nonetheless accompanied by stronger feelings of personal resilience closer and deeper relationships with others and a stronger sense of spirituality Posttraumatic growth has only recently become an important focus of interest for researchers and practitioners Drawing on a burgeoning professional literature as well as on their own extensive clinical experience the authors present strategies for helping clients effect all three types of positive change strategies that have been tested in a variety of groups facing a variety of crises and traumas Their concise yet comprehensive practical guide will be welcomed by all those who counsel persons grappling with the worst life has to offer
