My Life as a Colombian Revolutionary María Eugenia Vásquez Perdomo, 2005 In My Life as a Colombian Revolutionary María Eugenia Vásquez Perdomo presents a gripping account of her experiences as a member of M 19 one of the most successful guerrilla movements in Colombia's tumultuous modern history Vásquez's remarkable story opens with her happy childhood in a middle class provincial household in which she was encouraged to be adventurous and inquisitive As an eighteen year old university student in Bogotá María Eugenia embraced radical politics and committed herself to militant action to rid her country of an abusive government Dedicated and daring Vásquez took part in some of the M 19's boldest operations in the 1970s and 1980s and became one of its leaders She was able to avoid detection for nearly twenty years in the movement because she was both clever and considered too attractive to be a guerrillera Her vivid narrative brings to life the men and women who were her comrades and conveys their anxiety and exhilaration as they carried out their actions When she tells of her love affairs with some of M 19's top leaders she cannot separate romance from camaraderie or escape a sense of impending tragedy If Vásquez gave us only a rare insider's account of youth culture and a guerrilla movement in a Latin American country this would be a book well worth reading But she also gives us an unsparing analysis of what it meant to be a woman in the movement and how much her commitment to radical politics cost her Author note María Eugenia Vásquez Perdomo is Director Fundación Mujer y Futuro NGO Woman and Future Foundation working in coordination with the UN High Commissioner for Refugees UNHCR on the project Mujer y Derechos Women and Rights which serves women forcibly displaced by the armed conflict The Spanish language edition of this book published as Escrito para no morir was awarded the Colombian National Prize for Testimonial Literature in 1998 Lorena Terando is Assistant Professor of Translation at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee

This Life's Tempestuous Sea Douglas Charles Toland,2013-06 In a weak moment I have written a book Margaret Mitchell This book is a multilayered creation that touches on a wide array of topics many of them drawn from personal experiences Indeed you the lucky reader will be blessed with enough material for at least three books within one cover Why would I want to write such a multi themed book It wasn't my original intention Maybe I've learned an important lesson and won't do so next time Like many older folks I wanted to share what I have learned to be true and useful and couldn't seem to stay with a single topic I've lived long enough to confirm an important realization the gleanings from a well lived life are at least as important as knowledge gained vicariously through reading and classroom attendance But I think most people don't fully appreciate the value of their life lessons and end up taking most of them to the grave I want to counter that pattern and use this book to share as many of my gleanings as I can I also recognize several imminent dangers facing this nation and our planet and feel compelled to share these concerns Just as important I want my wife children and grandchildren to know more about who I was and who I've come to be I hope they will have occasions to use some of my wisdom Representing from Life in Seventeenth-century Italy Sheila McTighe,2025-10-01 In drawing or painting from live models and real landscapes more was at stake for artists in early modern Italy than achieving greater naturalism To work with the model in front of your eyes and to retain their identity in the finished work of art had an impact on concepts of artistry and authorship the authority of the image as a source of knowledge the boundaries between repetition and invention and even the relation of images to words This book focuses on artists who worked in Italy both native Italians and migrants from northern Europe The practice of depicting from life became a self conscious departure from the norms of Italian arts In the context of court culture in Rome and Florence works by artists ranging from Caravaggio to Claude Lorrain Pieter van Laer to Jacques Callot reveal new aspects of their artistic practice and its critical implications
