on Fire Lucien X. Polastron,2007-08-13 Almost as old as the idea of the library is the urge to destroy it Author Lucien X Polastron traces the history of this destruction examining the causes for these disasters the treasures that have been lost and where the surviving books if any have ended up Books on Fire received the 2004 Societe des Gens de Lettres Prize for Nonfiction History in Paris Diplomacy and Global Governance Thomas Nowotny,2012-09-25 Traditional diplomacy is based on the notion of competing nation states each attempting to maximize its autonomy and independence This notion is at odds with today s world in which even mighty states are enmeshed in a web of interdependence Much of the world s economy information industry and culture have become global Given these massive changes argues Thomas Nowotny much of traditional diplomacy has become redundant and sometimes counterproductive Notwithstanding worldwide interdependence states still anchor this complex global system In a timelier version of their craft diplomats retain an important function in safeguarding and shaping that worldwide interdependence They are trained to transform differences into consensus and to navigate zones of conflict But to do so effectively and to meet today s challenges they will have to adjust their ways and institutions Nowotny bases his arguments on his unique experiences in internal organizational politics and in bilateral and multilateral international diplomacy as well as on his theoretical reflections as an academic His work aims to merge lessons from these distinct spheres into one comprehensive whole intertwining practice and theory To affect outcomes one thus has to deal with practice and theory at the same time This is what Novotny aims to achieve and he succeeds admirably *Dictionnaire anglais-francais, et francais-anglais, tiré des meilleurs auteurs qui ont écrit dans ces deux langues; par A.
