Law in the Roman Provinces Kimberley Czajkowski, Benedikt Eckhardt, Meret Strothmann, 2020-06-10 The study of the Roman Empire has changed dramatically in the last century with significant emphasis now placed on understanding the experiences of subject populations rather than a sole focus on the Roman imperial elites Local experiences and interactions between periphery and centre are an intrinsic component in our understanding of the empire's function over and against the earlier top down model But where does law fit into this new decentralized picture of empire This volume brings together internationally renowned scholars from both legal and historical backgrounds to study the operation of law in each region of the Roman Empire from Britain to Egypt from the first century BCE to the end of the third century CE Regional specificities are explored in detail alongside the emergence of common themes and activities in a series of case studies that together reveal a new and wide ranging picture of law in the Roman Empire balancing the practicalities of regional variation with the ideological constructs of law and empire Unearthing Himalayan Treasures Volker Caumanns,Marta Sernesi,Nikolai Solmsdorf,2019-04-08 The Festschrift celebrates Franz Karl Ehrhard Professor of Tibetan and Buddhist Studies at the Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich from 2003 to 2019 Offered on the occasion of his 65th birthday it comprises 26 papers by friends and colleagues to honour his outstanding and far reaching contributions to the field of Tibetan Studies Mirroring Franz Karl Ehrhard s research interests the papers centre on the religious and literary traditions of Tibet and the Himalayas including sacred geography religious history philosophy and studies in textual production and transmission Building Categories in Interaction Caterina Mauri,Ilaria Fiorentini,Eugenio Goria,2021-12-15 This book addresses the topic of linguistic categorization from a novel perspective While most of the early research has focused on how linguistic systems reflect some pre existing ways of categorizing experience the contributions included in this volume seek to understand how linguistic resources of various nature prosodic cues affixes constructions discourse markers can be put to work in order to actively build categories in discourse and in interaction to achieve social goals This question is addressed in different ways by researchers from different subfields of linguistics including psycholinguistics conversation analysis linguistic typology and discourse pragmatics and a major point of innovation is represented in fact by the interdisciplinary nature of the volume and in the systematic search for converging evidence CHEMISTRY HANDBOOK & STUDY GUIDE Gr11-12 NE Kevin Smith,2024-02-01 A comprehensive summary of Grade 11 12 Physics Simple logical summaries with example exam questions and work through solutions The book covers the fundamentals of Grade 11 12 Physics and complements the material in any class text TESOL and Sustainability Jason Goulah,John Katunich,2020-05-14 In the burgeoning field of ecolinguistics little attention has been given to the ways in which English language teaching is and has become implicated in global ecological crises This book begins a dialogue about the opportunities and responsibilities presented to the TESOL field to re orient professional practice in ways that drive cultural change and engender alternate language practices and metaphors Covering a diverse range of topics including anthropogenic climate change habitat loss food insecurity and mass migration chapters argue that such crises require not only technological innovation but also cultural changes in how human beings relate to each other and their environment Arguing that it is incumbent upon the field of English language teaching to reckon with such cultural changes in how and what we teach TESOL and Sustainability addresses the ways in which discourses such as eco pedagogy the critique of neo liberalism non Western philosophy and post humanist thought can and must inform how and what is taught in ESL and EFL classrooms      Modern Building Design Ricardo Codinhoto, 2019-11-28 Climate change technology and regulation are just some of the challenges faced by the architecture engineering and construction industry in the design and build of modern buildings This book explores these trends highlighting how higher education and the construction sector can address these challenges through modern design practices and integrated approaches It explores the following topics conflicting design tensions in projects the concept of Deformocere ugly through harm the emerging role of the design manager buildings and their impact on health and wellbeing and the importance of information modelling for enhanced design Energy modelling and life cycle analysis along with multidisciplinary building design and design trade offs are covered too With case studies and supporting illustrations this book will guide you to a better understanding of modern building design      Routledge
