Distancing the Past Chana Teeger, 2024-07-02 Winner 2025 Gordon Hirabayashi Human Rights Book Award Sociology of Human Rights Section American Sociological Association Winner 2025 Oliver Cromwell Cox Book Award Section on Racial and Ethnic Minorities American Sociological Association Honorable Mention 2025 Bourdieu Best Book Award Sociology of Education Section American Sociological Association Shortlisted 2025 Barrington Moore Book Award Comparative Historical Sociology Section American Sociological Association Shortlisted 2025 Philip Abrams Memorial Prize British Sociological Association Shortlisted 2025 MSA First Book Award Memory Studies Association Finalist 2024 C Wright Mills Award Society for the Study of Social Problems How are histories of racial oppression dealt with in contexts of diversity Chana Teeger tackles this question by examining how young South Africans born into democracy confront their country's racist apartheid past in high school history lessons Drawing on extensive observational interview and textual data Distancing the Past vividly chronicles how students learn that racism is a thing of the past even as they experience it in their everyday lives Teeger shows how teachers desire to avoid conflict between students mirrors a national focus on racial reconciliation leading to the historical distancing of the recent apartheid past This historical distancing allows schools to present a facade of transformation Beneath the surface however the lessons reproduce unequal power relations at school and legitimize inequality at the societal level In documenting these processes Distancing the Past illuminates the subtle reconfiguration of racism in the era of civil liberties It shows how acknowledging the racist past is not enough When the past is remembered but its legacies ignored racism can continue unabated in the present Distancing the Past is a timely account of the remaking of race and inequality in the aftermath of de jure discrimination It offers vital lessons for other societies grappling with their own racist histories

Handbook of Comparative Education Law: Selected Nations from Africa and the Americas Charles J. Russo, 2019-08-09 Each of the four volumes in this set as well as each volume independently provide comparative analyses for researchers practitioners and students of the law and education in examining law and education in various countries around the world Designed to allow readers to learn from rather than copy the legal and educational systems in these volumes the books are designed to generate thought and conversation on how education can be improved around the world By having chapter authors leading academicians in the home countries follow the same template so it can be easier to compare similarities and differences thereby helping to make the book user friendly The value of these books is that they should help to enhance international awareness of the similarities and advantages associated with bringing together knowledge from various countries concerning education law Volume 4 encompassing Selected Nations in Africa and the Americas namely Brazil Canada Mauritius United States South Africa and Venezuela consists of detailed analysis of educational law and systems in these representative countries so researchers and students there and elsewhere can learn from one another
