The Aesthetic Life of Infrastructure Kelly M.

Rich, Nicole M. Rizzuto, Susan Zieger, 2022-12-15 A critical reading of the unstable structures that organize biological and social life This timely and radically interdisciplinary volume uncovers the aesthetics and politics of infrastructure From roads and bridges to harbors and canals infrastructure is conventionally understood as the public works that allow for the circulation of capital Yet this naturalized concept of infrastructure driven by capital's restless expansion is haunted by imperial tendencies to occupy territory extract resources and organize life Infrastructure thus undergirds the living nexus of modernity in an ongoing project of racialization affective embodiment and environmental praxis Rather than merely making visible infrastructure's modes of power however The Aesthetic Life of Infrastructure brings literary methods to bear on the interpretive terrain reading infrastructural space and temporalities to show that their aesthetic and sensorial experience cannot be understood apart from histories of production and political economies Building on critical infrastructure studies in anthropology geography and media studies this collection demonstrates the field's vitality to scholars working across the humanities including in literary visual and cultural studies By querying the presumed invisibility of infrastructure's hidden life the volume's contributors revitalize ongoing literary debates about reading surface and depth How they ask might infrastructure and aesthetics then function as epistemic tools for rethinking each other And what urgency do they acquire in light of current crises that bear on death whether biological social or planetary Ecospectrality Laura A.

White, 2020-05-14 Along with humans and animals ghosts populate the pages of contemporary Anglophone novels Analysing novels from across the world including Australia Nigeria South Africa India and Jamaica this book explores how these ghosts can help readers to perceive difficult to visualise environmental threats and access marginalised environmental knowledge Instead of prompting fear these hauntings foster understanding across species and generations to enable inclusive formulations of environmental justice Drawing on the latest work in postcolonial ecocriticism hauntology and environmental philosophy and such literary texts as GraceLand No Telephone to Heaven The Rock Alphabet and The Ministry of Utmost Happiness Ecospectrality is an essential read for anyone working in the environmental humanities today Re-Reading

Tragic Africa Amy Rushton, 2024-05-31 Grounded in world systemic analysis this book revisits the literary and social implications of tragedy in relation to global narratives about Africa and within fiction by writers from the continent It argues that working through the full complexity of tragedy helps to identify and challenge plots that depict Africa as reaching a tragic impasse Instead reconsidering tragedy allows for further related interventions including the implications of narratives of development the argument for formally engaging with literary texts that present challenging material reformulations of African political and cultural agency and the possibilities to be found in utopian thinking It claims that contemporary fiction helps to scrutinise the familiar big picture of Africa and create space for discussions about wider political and historical commonalities between the continent and the rest of the world As such the novels discussed in this study are not simply about Africa these fictional narratives position Africa as a central actor within the global history of late capitalism

Childhood in Contemporary Diasporic African Literature

Christopher E. W.

Ouma,2020-02-27 This book examines the representation of figures memories and images of childhood in selected contemporary diasporic African fiction by Adichie Abani Wainaina and Oyeyemi The book argues that childhood is a key framework for thinking about contemporary African and African Diasporic identities It argues that through the privileging of childhood memory alternative conceptions of time emerge in this literature and which allow African writers to re imagine what family ethnicity nation means within the new spaces of diaspora that a majority of them occupy The book therefore looks at the connections between childhood space time and memory childhood gender and sexuality childhoods in contexts of war as well as migrant childhoods These dimensions of childhood particularly relate to the return of the memory of Biafra the figures of child soldiers memories of growing up in Cold War Africa queer boyhoods sonhood as well as experiences of migration within Africa North America and Europe Corruption Plots Malini Ranganathan,David L. Pike,Sapana Doshi,2023-04-15 Winner of the Anthony Leeds Prize in Urban Anthropology by the American Anthropological Association Corruption Plots illuminates how corruption is fundamental to global storytelling about how states and elites abuse entrusted power in late capitalism The millennial city of the global South is a charged setting for allegations of corruption with skyscrapers land grabs and slum evictions invoking outrage at deepening economic polarization Drawing on ethnography in Bengaluru and Mumbai and a cross section of literary and cinematic stories from cities around the world Malini Ranganathan David L Pike and Sapana Doshi pay close attention to the racial caste class and gender locations of the narrators spaces and publics imagined to be harmed by corruption Corruption Plots demonstrates how corruption talk is leveraged to make sense of unequal spatial change and used opportunistically by those who are themselves implicated in wrongdoing Offering a wide ranging analysis of urban worlds the authors reveal the ethical spatial and political stakes of storytelling and how vital it is to examine the corruption plot in all its contradictions Elusive Kinship Christopher Krentz,2022-04-22 This volume analyzes the figure and representation of disability in postcolonial literature unpacking how depictions of disability both reflected and directly impacted the growth of disability human rights in the latter half of the twentieth century
