Friendly Letter To Grandparents

July 20, 2057

[YOUR NAME]

[YOUR ADDRESS]

Dear Grandpa and Grandma,

How are you, my beloved ones? I am writing to you to tell you how much I miss you and how every day I crave our sweet time together. Do you remember how we used to make cookies on a Sunday afternoon, with Grandma guiding my small hands? And how Grandpa always came too early from work just to participate in our little get-together? Those are moments forever carved in my heart.

I am still making cookies using the recipe you both gave me, although they hardly ever taste the same without your love added. I am doing well here; my life is as busy as a wasp -always on the run. Still, my mind always finds time to wander back to you.

Let's plan and have a little catch-up soon, just the three of us under the old maple tree in your backyard. I can already visualize cookies, lemonade, and lots of love. See you soon.

Sincerely,

[YOUR EMAIL]

Voices From the Heartland Carolyn Anne Taylor,Emily Dial-Driver,Sally Emmons-Featherston,Carole Burrage,2012-11-27 A thought provoking collection of essays on life and living Voices from the Heartland is a celebration of women s contributions to Oklahoma s recent past It records defining moments in women s lives whether surviving the Oklahoma City bombing or surviving abuse and represents a wide range of professions lifestyles and backgrounds to show how extraordinary lives have grown from the seeds of ordinary girlhoods From former Cherokee principal chief Wilma Mankiller First Lady Kim Henry novelist Billie Letts and prima ballerina Maria Tallchief to OU basketball coach Sherri Coale the authors share their personal reflections on finding balance as they look back on defining moments in their lives mull over what they wish they had learned sooner and convey the wisdom they ve unearthed on their journeys thus far Touching on topics from adultery to left handedness from losing children to losing perspective these essays speak from the heart to reveal what it means to be an American woman today Readers will meet activists and writers advocates and artists some of whom are household names while others work outside the public eye Voices from the Heartland speaks to readers all across America and demonstrates that women in Oklahoma represent the heart of us all The Selected Literary Letters of Paul Laurence Dunbar Paul Laurence Dunbar,2021-02-09 These 250 transcribed and annotated letters reveal the personal and literary life of one of the most highly regarded African American writers and intellectuals Paul Laurence Dunbar 1873 1906 was arguably the most famous African American poet novelist and dramatist at the turn of the twentieth century and one of the earliest African American writers to receive national recognition and appreciation Scholars have taken a renewed interest in Dunbar but much is still unknown about this once famous African American author s life and literary efforts Dunbar s letters to various editors friends benefactors scholars and family members are crucial to any critical or theoretical understanding of his journey as a writer His literary correspondence in particular records the development of an extraordinary figure whose work reached a broad readership in his lifetime but not without considerable cost The Selected Literary Letters of Paul Laurence Dunbar is a collection of 250 letters transcribed and annotated that reveal the personal and literary life of one of the most highly regarded African American writers and intellectuals Editors Cynthia C Murillo and Jennifer M Nader highlight Dunbar not just as a determined author and master of rhetoric but also as a young sensitive thoughtful keenly intelligent and talented writer who battled depression alcoholism and tuberculosis as well as rejection and racism Despite Dunbar s personal struggles his literary letters disclose that he was full of hopes and dreams coupled with the resolve to flourish as a writer at almost any cost even when it caused controversy Taken together Dunbar s letters depict his concerted effort to succeed as an author within an overtly racist literary culture among sharp divides within the African American intellectual community and in opposition to the demands of popular public tastes often dictated by the demands of publishers This wide ranging selection of Dunbar s most relevant literary letters will serve to correct many matters of conjecture about Dunbar s life writing and choices by supplying factual evidence to counter speculation assumption and incomplete information

Peace in Truth Rev. Carrie D. Larson, MA, CCHT, 2014-03 This book is about learning everything we can from our lives Every moment waking or sleeping has a message for us about who we are and what we are on the earth to do It is exciting to understand this concept and to know how connected we really are to each other and to the universal energy that runs through all of us We can be quiet in meditation and receive this great energy and knowledge Forgiveness can bring our purpose in life closer to being fulfilled We are blessed with something to do in this life that will help others This is like throwing a pebble into a still pond The ripples of our actions in life can bring about wonderful growth and change in the entire world Look at the influence parents have on children and multiply that by thousands The world is ready for you Are you ready to experience your own fulfillment
