

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a

Thirty eight year old Marcia Evans has spent her adult life as a struggling actress unable to penetrate that barrier which prevents her from having the big break all aspiring actors and actresses hope to achieve which will move her career to the next level She works part time at a day job and does small acting gigs on the side She is tired of her lifestyle and of life in the big city Marcia eventually discovers a charming house set in the woods while traveling to an acting job at a theater outside of the city She learns that the original owners who were killed in a car accident twenty years after the house was built were retirees who enjoyed aiding transients and runaways The house passed on to the niece of the wife who died only five years after moving into the house at a very young age Using part of her grandmother's inheritance Marcia purchases the house from the son of the deceased owner for a suspiciously low price She moves into the house and rents a room out to Stephen Gomaz a co worker at her job and with whom she falls in love But chronic illness terrifying nightmares and strange paranormal activity cause Marcia to question the true character of the original owners and the events that may have happened in the house With the aid of a deputy sheriff and a psychic the horrifying truth of the house is revealed

Learning to Be Tibetan Miaoyan Yang, 2017-03-17 Since the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949 the Chinese Communist Party CCP has launched a nation wide ethnic identification project to recognize ethnic minorities which are widely considered as peripheral barbarian inferior backward and distrusted State schooling is expected to play a significant political role in civilizing and integrating these ethnic minorities As an important part of Chinese state schooling fifteen tertiary minority institutions have been established assuming a primary goal of cultivating minority officials who are loyal to the CCP This study situating in the context of Minzu University of China MUC the best university designated specifically for the education of ethnic minorities seeks to explore the intersection between state schooling and ethnic identity construction of Tibetan students Ethnographic data has revealed how educational backgrounds of MUC's Tibetan students have influenced the ways in which they interpret negotiate and assert their Tibetan-ness Four patterns of ethnic identification are discussed 1 For the min kao min students meaning having received bilingual education in Chinese and Tibetan prior to MUC in Tibetan studies being Tibetan means assuming an ethnic mission of promoting Tibetan language and culture 2 For the min kao min students in other majors being Tibetan embodies having a different physical appearance wearing different clothing engaging in different religious practices holding cultural beliefs and generally under achieving academically in Han dominant settings 3 For the inland Tibetan school graduates being Tibetan means having a reflective awareness of their cultural and language loss due to their dislocated schooling and a determination to make up for the past by innovatively initiating organizing or participating in Tibetan cultural programs 4 For the min kao han meaning having received mainstream education the same as Han Chinese prior to MUC students being Tibetan is simply a symbolic identity that they sometimes utilize to gain preferential treatments With the exception of most of the min kao han students Tibetan identity has been revitalized and strengthened after studying and living in MUC In the process the unity of the Tibetan group has been promoted and enhanced Tibetan students different approaches to ethnic identification provide us with useful lessons about ethnic identity dynamics in relation to education culture and ethnic politics As opposed to other interpretations that see Tibetans as exotic ethnic others this study reveals that Tibetan students ethnic identification is meaningful when they strategically negotiate with the Han Chinese dominant narratives This study contributes to the understanding of ethnic politics and interethnic dynamics in China
