Bookclub-in-a-Box Discusses Khaled Hosseini's novel, The Kite Runner Marilyn Herbert,2011-03-25 The Kite Runner has the distinction of being the first English language fiction written about Afghanistan by Khaled Hosseini a former Afghan doctor who fled his native country in 1980 as it became immersed in civil war The novel tells of the relationship of two boys who are born live and play side by side yet there is no equality in their connection Hosseini takes his story through three decades which include communism and Soviet occupation as well as the arrival of the Mujahideen and the reign of terror that followed Bookclub in a Box will review and examine the following topics The complex relationship of Amir and Hassan especially juxtaposed against the political and cultural backdrop of their times Through the relationship of the two boys with each other and with others the reader will reflect on how those personal and political realities can be intertwined There will be references to the concepts of master and bully The images of the kite and the kite runner are appropriate symbols for Afghanistan and will be considered in that light Readers will be inspired to seek out other metaphors in this rich novel Afghanistan has been forever changed by its different masters for example the Russians and the Taliban Examine the devastation of Afghanistan as portrayed in the lives of the novel s characters and to see and understand the kind of human suffering that occurred behind the newspaper headlines Every Bookclub in a Box discussion guide includes complete coverage of the themes and symbols writing style and interesting background information on the novel and the author See the website www.bookclubinabox.com for our complete line of Bookclub in a Box discussion guides The Kite Runner Vincent Verret,2018-08-30 Welcome to the best Study Guide for The Kite Runner with this special Deluxe Edition featuring over 100 pages of guided activities diagrams visual organizers note taking exercises and essential questions With sections aimed at citing evidence from the text this study guide for The Kite Runner is up to date with Next Generation 21st Century and Common Core skill requirements This study guide for The Kite Runner can be used as BOTH a study guide for readers students AND an instructional guide for teachers It is the perfect companion to introducing literature in any classroom Master the material and ace any assignment with this innovative study guide series This book is perfect for both students and teachers as it produces true mastery of content knowledge and book details Other study guides for The Kite Runner simply give basic details of the novel meaning that students read over material without digesting or learning it Other study guides take complex themes concepts and information and just regurgitate it to readers But this Study Guide for The Kite Runner is different Using the original text as a guide you will learn to cite evidence from the text in order to complete and reflect on your reading Readers will self generate additional notes within the structure provided by this Study Guide Designed by a veteran educator this study guide for The Kite Runner GUIDES the learner to discovering the answers for themselves creating a fully detailed study guide in the user s own words Filled with guided reading activities students are able to fill this guidebook with their own information Television and Reading Susan B. Neuman,1986 Drawing on communications psychological and educational studies this paper examines television s influence on reading performance and school achievement The first section of the paper reviews and synthesizes major studies dealing with the introduction of television in a community and with correlations between television use and school achievement pointing out that many of the studies have flawed methodologies and weak links between theory and methodology The second section of the paper synthesizes the results of eight statewide reading assessments and a secondary analysis of the 1984 National Assessment of Educational Progress using hypotheses based on four theories of displacement the idea that watching television replaces other activities in children s lives It concludes that television viewing is associated with a different set of needs and gratifications than reading The report includes extensive tables of data and eight pages of references FL
