Lunar and Solar Messianic Almanac, B.C. and A.D. 5680 and 5681. A.D. 1919, 1920 and 1921 Edward Samuel Niles, 1920 Religious Publishing and Print Culture in Modern China Philip Clart, Gregory Adam Scott, 2014-12-16

Scholarly interest in print culture and in the study of religion in modern China has increased in recent years propelled by maturing approaches to the study of cultural history and by a growing recognition that both were important elements of China's recent past. The influence of China in the contemporary world continues to expand and with it has come an urgent need to understand the processes by which its modern history was made. Issues of religious freedom and of religion's influence on the public sphere continue to be contentious but important subjects of scholarly work and the role of print and textual media has not dimmed with the advent of electronic communication. This book Religious Publishing and Print Culture in Modern China 1800-2012 speaks to these contemporary and historical issues by bringing to light the important and abiding connections between religious development and modern print culture in China. Bringing together these two subjects has a great deal of potential for producing insights that will appeal to scholars working in a range of fields from media studies to social historians. Each chapter demonstrates how focusing on the role of publishing among religious groups in modern China generates new insights and raises new questions. They examine how religious actors understood the role of printed texts in religion, dealt with issues of translation and exegesis, produced print media that heralded social and ideological changes, and expressed new self-understandings in their published works. They also address the impact of new technologies such as mechanized movable type and lithographic presses in the production and meaning of religious texts. Finally, the chapters identify where religious print culture crossed confessional lines, connecting religious traditions through links of shared textual genres, commercial publishing companies, and the contributions of individual editors and authors. This book thus demonstrates how, in embracing modern print media and building upon their longstanding traditional print cultures, Christian, Buddhist, Daoist, and popular religious groups were developed and defined in modern China. While the chapter authors are specialists in religious traditions, they have made use of recent studies into publishing and print culture and, like many of the subjects of their research, are able to make connections across religious boundaries and link together seemingly discrete traditions.

The Historicity of the Old Testament Messiah: By Whose Authority? The Rev. Dr. Lawrence Olin Watt, 2024-01-16

About the Book: The inspiration of Church Fathers, Church Councils, and the Roman Church was to impose a Church order. The Church Order resolved to bring separation between oppressive Judaism and the Grace of the Risen Lord. Examination of the history of the established Church and of the scriptural intent of the I AM on current established theology does not support this pretense. The promises of Yehovah were for those who descended from Abraham and those who chose to become his heirs according to the covenants made with them. Is the current teaching of the Church in accord with the six covenants, or were those covenants alleviated? Is the I AM the same yesterday, today, and forever? Did He change His mind Or is there a plan laid out in Scripture that we have ignored altered or misunderstood About the Author The Rev Dr Lawrence Olin Watt studied at Ottawa University 1969 1973 Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary 1973 and 2017 2020 Central Baptist Theological Seminary 1974 1979 Central Michigan University 1992 1994 and the University of Phoenix 2005 2013 He has been a pastor in Churches in Kansas Missouri Illinois Indiana Michigan and Maryland He was a Special Education Administrator in Prince George s County Maryland He worked with emotionally challenged teenage boys in the Juvenile Justice Systems in Porter County Indiana and Newaygo County Michigan Dr Watt was on the Board of Directors for a support group assisting survivors of Suicide Dr Watt and his wife Keli have six adult children and a plethora of foster children Dr Watt is currently retired from the school and Juvenile Justice systems He Continues to serve as Pastor of Central Seventh Day Baptist Church in Upper Marlboro Maryland In his spare time Dr Watt works plays with his four Mopar Hemis He enjoys driving them across the United States and Canada
