increasingly irreverent attitude towards the CIA reflected a growing public anxiety about excessive US government secrecy In Secrecy's Shadow provides the first comprehensive history of the birth and development of Hollywood's relationship with American intelligence It takes an interdisciplinary approach synthesizing literatures and methodologies from diplomatic history film studies and cultural theory and it presents new perspectives on a number of major filmmakers including Darryl F Zanuck Alfred Hitchcock and John Ford Based on research conducted in over 20 archival repositories across the United States and UK Secrecy's Shadow explores the revolution in the relationship between Hollywood and the secret state from unwavering trust and cooperation to extreme scepticism and paranoia and demonstrates the debilitating effects of secrecy upon public trust in government and the stability of national memory Stone Arabia Dana Spiotta, 2011 Sharing a close bond that supersedes other relationships Nic a fiercely reclusive musician and Denise his dedicated sister and solitary audience member become increasingly isolated in the wake of Nic's obsessive work CMJ New Music Monthly, 2004 CMJ New Music Monthly the first consumer magazine to include a bound in CD sampler is the leading publication for the emerging music enthusiast NMM is a monthly magazine with interviews reviews and special features Each magazine comes with a CD of 15-24 songs by well established bands unsigned bands and everything in between It is published by CMJ Network Inc

Bodies on the Line Raphael Allison, 2014-12-01 Bodies on the Line offers the first sustained study of the poetry reading in its most formative period the 1960s Raphael Allison closely examines a vast archive of audio recordings of several key postwar American poets to explore the social and literary context of the sixties poetry reading which is characterized by contrasting differing styles of performance the humanist style and the skeptical strain The humanist style made mainstream by the Beats and their imitators is characterized by faith in the power of presence emotional communion and affect The skeptical strain emphasizes openness of interpretation and multivalent meaning a lack of stability or consistency and ironic detachment By comparing these two dominant styles of reading Allison argues that attention to sixties poetry readings reveals poets struggling between the kind of immediacy and presence that readings suggested and a private retreat from such performance based publicity one centered on the text itself Recordings of Robert Frost Charles Olson Gwendolyn Brooks Larry Eigner and William Carlos Williams all of whom emphasized voice breath and spoken language and who were inveterate professional readers in the sixties expose this struggle in often surprising ways In deconstructing assertions about the role and importance of the poetry reading during this period Allison reveals just how dramatic political and contentious poetry readings could be By discussing how to hear as well as read poetry Bodies on the Line offers startling new vantage points from which to understand American poetry since the 1960s as both performance and text Comparing the Literatures David Damrosch, 2022-02-08 Paperback reprint Originally published 2020
