Talvacchia,2024-10-17 Inclusive and progressive theological and religious perspectives have an important and distinctive contribution to make to an analysis of the critical issues facing women identified persons in the 21st century This incisive collection of essays recovers the missing theological voices grounded in those religious communities and traditions which gender and sexuality studies often overlook Feminist theologies have from their beginnings aspired to be the communal production of women identified persons who critically reflect on their experiences in the contexts of culture social standpoint religious practices and beliefs and imagination of the Feminine Divine Pae and Talvacchia draw from this heritage to engage the critical issues of today to create new perspectives They create an intellectual and discursive space where feminist theologians in all of their diversity renew and reclaim the rich legacies of the feminist theological tradition through inter generational racially diverse and transnational conversation

Can You Be a Catholic and a Feminist? Julie Hanlon Rubio,2024 Is it possible to reconcile Catholic and feminist identities Julie Hanlon Rubio argues that it is but only if we rethink how women and men who experience the pull of feminism and Catholicism can credibly claim both identities Holy Body Brianne Bell Jacobs,2024-10-15 Holy Body Gender and Sexual Difference in Theological Anthropology and Ecclesiology argues that all bodies across sexual difference are procreative The author lays the ground for her argument with chapters that summarize the current debate over the gender binary in theology modern scientific evidence about sexual difference philosophical arguments about gender as a social construction the development of the gender binary in Christian history and the effects of the gender binary today With this foundation laid Brianne Bell Jacobs argues for a theological anthropology in which all bodies by performatively expanding who is loved are generative Then in the context of Roman Catholic ecclesiology Jacobs argues again that all bodies are generative She calls for an ordained priesthood in mutual relationship with the priesthood of the baptized in which both are given meaning beyond the gender binary and in which both are able together to generate the Body of Christ in the church and the Eucharist In response to the harms of patriarchy sexualized racism homophobia and sexual abuse this book presents a Roman Catholic theology that affirms we are each of us and together a life giving and holy body Ruptured Bodies Eugene R. Schlesinger,2024-05-28 The divided church is withering on the vine Crises of its own making ranging from clergy sexual abuse and its cover up to the church s complicity in colonialism empire and patriarchy coupled with societal shifts beyond the church's control have eroded its credibility. A much deserved decline is well underway. And yet churches remain content to continue with business as usual. The causes of this state of crisis are manifold and complex and no one solution could resolve them all. But so long as the church remains in a state of division no solutions will be forthcoming. Division is no mere regrettable shortcoming or inconvenience; it is a contradiction of the church's foundation. After all, Jesus prayed that his followers would be one so the world could believe he was sent by God. Faced with a crisis of credibility, the church finds no way forward because a divided church renders the gospel message not credible. Ruptured Bodies is a systematic theological account of the divided church. It argues that no adequate ecclesiology can ignore division because in doing so it will fail to describe the church that actually is. Such an understanding must integrate the reality of division while also refusing to blunt its sharp edge, neither dismissing, excusing, nor minimizing it. What must the church be given the fact of its division?

Schlesinger presents a systematic ecclesiology of the divided church despite that idea's seeming impossibility because such an ecclesiology is precisely what we need. Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A.

Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church. As a result, Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world, comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries. In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education, contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum, literacy, teacher training, outcomes, and professional standards. This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe, illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy, home schooling, Sunday schools, women's education, graded schools, compulsory education of the deaf and blind, and kindergarten. With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors, The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1,200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries. These volumes cover a vast range of topics from Christian education history spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day; denominational and institutional profiles; intellectual traditions in Christian education; biblical and theological frameworks; curricula; missions; adolescent and higher education; theological training; and Christian pedagogy. Biographies of distinguished Christian educators. This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education. Faith and

Power Felipe Hinojosa, Maggie Elmore, Sergio M. González, 2022-02-22 Faith and Power is framed within the larger processes of immigration, refugee policies, deindustrialization, the rise of the religious left and right, the human rights revolution, and the Chicana/o, Puerto Rican, and Immigrant freedom movements. The book explores religion and religious politics as part of the larger ecosystem that has shaped Latina/o communities specifically and American politics in general. Signs and Wonders

Ellen T. Armour, 2016-03-15 We are told modernity's end will destabilize familiar ways of knowing doing and being but are these changes we should dread or celebrate Four significant events and the iconic images that represent them catalyze this question the consecration of openly gay Episcopalian bishop Gene Robinson the mistreatment of prisoners at Abu Ghraib prison the politicization of the death of Terri Schiavo and the disastrous response to Hurricane Katrina Framed by an original appropriation of Michel Foucault and drawing on resources in visual culture theory and the history of photography Ellen T Armour explores the anxieties passions and power dynamics bound up in the photographic representation and public reception of these events Together these phenomena expose modernity's benevolent and malevolent disruptions and reveal the systemic fractures and fissures that herald its end for better and for worse In response to these signs and wonders Armour lays the groundwork for a theology and philosophy of life better suited to our post modern moment one that owns up to the vulnerabilities that modernity sought to disavow and better enables us to navigate the ethical issues we now confront

Becoming Human Luke A. Powery, 2022-11-01 Discussions of racial difference always embody a story The dominant story told in our society about race has many components but two stand out 1 racial difference is an essential characteristic fully determining individual and group identity and 2 racial difference means that some bodies are less human than others The church knows another story says Luke Powery if it would remember it That story says that the diversity of human bodies is one of the gifts of the Spirit That story's decisive chapter comes at Pentecost when the Spirit embraces all bodies all flesh all tongues In that story different kinds of materiality and embodiment are strengths to be celebrated rather than inconvenient facts to be ignored or feared In this book Powery urges the church to live up to the inclusive story of Pentecost in its life of worship and ministry He reviews ways that a theology and practice of preaching can more fully exemplify the diversity of gifts God gives to the church He concludes by entering into a conversation with the work of Howard Thurman on doing ministry to and with humanity in the light of the work of the Spirit History of Catholic Theological Ethics, A Keenan, James F., SJ, 2022 An introduction to Catholic theological ethics through the lens of its historical development from the beginning of the church until today Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today's ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH's case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH s social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH s hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God s presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH s nature mission and place Reclaiming Spirit in the Black Faith Tradition D. Hicks, 2012-10-31 This work attempts to uncover the function of religion for those degraded on the basis of race Accordingly Recalibrating Spirit reveals the role of religion in critical reflection on and active protest against negative assertions about racial identity in general and the abuse of black life in particular
