Johannesburg and its epidemics Philip Harrison,2020-11-30 This historical account of the epidemics that have struck Johannesburg during its 134 year history is written with the burden of the present On 31 December 2019 the World Health Organization WHO reported a cluster of pneumonia cases in Wuhan China and shortly afterwards confirmed that a previously unknown coronavirus was the cause The disease was labelled Coronavirus Disease 2019 Covid 19 and spread globally in the early months of 2020 The South African Development Directory ,2001 Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa ,2007 This Week in South Africa ,1995 Who's who of Southern Africa ,2004 Vols for 1967 70 include as a section Who's who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa Migration and Health Sandro Galea,Catherine K. Ettman,Muhammad H. Zaman,2022-11-25 A new introduction to a timeless dynamic how the movement of humans affects health everywhere International migrants compose more than three percent of the world's population and internal migrants those migrating within countries are more than triple that number Population migration has long been and remains today one of the central demographic shifts shaping the world around us The world's history and its health is shaped and colored by stories of migration patterns the policies and political events that drive these movements and narratives of individual migrants Migration and Health offers the most expansive framework to date for understanding and reckoning with human migration's implications for public health and its determinants It interrogates this complex relationship by considering not only the welfare of migrants but also that of the source destination and ensuing generation populations The result is an elevated interdisciplinary resource for understanding what is known and the considerable territory of what is not known at an intersection that promises to grow in importance and influence as the century unfolds Geographies of Health and Development Rachel Bezner Kerr,Isaac Luginaah,2016-03-03 The geographies of health and development is an emerging sub discipline tying in with many of the conceptual theoretical and practical components of other disciplines working in health health care economics and international development Spatially and theoretically grounded in geography this collection offers a fresh perspective on the dialectic relationships between health and development Health problems in a developing context take on much higher rates of prevalence as a result of the varied cultural structural and economic vulnerabilities of the people they impact This book begins by exploring some of the circumstances surrounding the distinctive health inequities currently facing many developing countries including malaria maternal mortality and HIV AIDS This is followed by a discussion of how matters of physical access and human resource issues and perhaps most importantly the challenges of financing together shape the access and utilization of health care Examining how the environment interacts to influence the health of the people that live there the next section includes discussion around challenges of food in security and the importance of clean and uncontaminated water for health Finally the book explores the influence of globalization on health specifically within the urban environment against the backdrop of global health policy Investigating the Roles of School
