The Abolition Lectionary Hannah Bowman, Wesley Spears-Newsome, Guillermo Arboleda, 2025-07-23. The Biblical message of liberation to captives around the entire liturgical year. What does the Bible say about prisons and justice? The Abolition Lectionary is a devotional and preaching aid that presents the many resonances between Christian theology and prison abolition. Following the three-year cycle of the Revised Common Lectionary, each essay addresses one text for each Sunday. The variety of texts presents a breadth of interpretive perspectives that show the connections between the biblical narrative of liberation and the modern-day prison abolition movement. The movement of the lectionary across the seasons of the church year grounds the promise of liberation in the everyday practices of Christian life. The Abolition Lectionary grew out of a blog series of the same name on the website of Christians for the Abolition of Prisons that ran from 2020-2023. With contributors from many different Christian traditions, it offers an ecumenical, scriptural, liturgical, ethical, radical, and accessible entry point to learning about abolition. For Christians interested in personal devotional reading or for preachers and clergy looking to bring urgent concerns about prisons, policing, and restorative and transformative justice into their lectionary preaching, The Abolition Lectionary finds abolitionist perspectives across the scope of the biblical story.

Sharing the Crust Mark R. Gornik, 2024-08-23. In Sharing the Crust, Mark Gornik tells the story of an unbreakable love through the life and witness of Allan Tibbels and a communion of saints in the Sandtown neighborhood of Baltimore. Sharing the Crust is about the power of small changes the little way and the hard work of peacemaking in a divided world. It is about the meaning of companionship in this life and the life to come of who we are to one another. A refreshingly complex story of ministry, church life, and community development, Sharing the Crust is a witness to faith, hope, and love for our times.

God Still Works Miracles S. Yvonne Hall, 2020-10-23. God Still Works Miracles is a series of sermons intended to inspire and encourage readers that God is still working miracles today. We may not see the literal miraculous parting of the Red Sea, but today God will figuratively part Red Seas of difficulty and adversity and allow one to cross over into blessing and peace. We may not see a woman's minuscule amount of oil miraculously becoming an unlimited amount of oil, but today God will miraculously multiply that which we have and supply all needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. These sermons will remind the reader that what God did before, He can and will do again according to His will. God has not changed, and He is still able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that works in us. Ephesians 3:20.
