Hosting States and Unsettled Guests
Jennifer Riggan, Amanda Poole, 2024-02-06 As wealthy countries build walls to keep migrants out countries in the Global South are celebrated for their hospitality towards refugees Hosting States and Unsettled Guests asks the question did these policies enable refugees to consider their new country home Beginning in 2016 Ethiopia promoted local integration economic opportunities and access to education for refugees in order to encourage them to stay long term rather than migrate towards Europe But by 2020 a political overhaul and the outbreak of war in Northern Ethiopia foreclosed these opportunities particularly for Eritrean refugees in Ethiopia How did Eritrean refugees envision their future in light of the discrepancy between promising policies and ongoing instability Using ethnographic interviews and participant observation with government officials NGOs and refugees in three camps in northern Ethiopia and Addis Ababa Jennifer Riggan and Amanda Poole explore refugee notions of progress care hope and futurity Caught at the intersection of teleological violence and temporal agency refugees endure the present and tenaciously produce a sense of the future even when their efforts to progress are repeatedly challenged An important read Hosting States and Unsettled Guests makes key empirical and theoretical contributions in forced migration studies East African studies anthropology and international education Riggan and Poole deftly shift the focus of refugee studies away from Europe to regions in the Global South to understand the violence of emerging forms of migration deterrence

Executive Function and Education Mariëtte Huizinga, Dieter Baeyens, Jacob A. Burack, 2018-09-21 Executive function is an umbrella term for various cognitive processes that are central to goal directed behavior thoughts and emotions These processes are especially important in novel or demanding situations which require a rapid and flexible adjustment of behavior to the changing demands of the environment The development of executive function relies on the maturation of associated brain regions as well as on stimulation in the child s social contexts especially the home and school Over the past decade the term executive function has become a buzzword in the field of education as both researchers and educators underscore the importance of skills like goal setting planning and organizing in academic success Accordingly in initiating this Research Topic and eBook our goal was to provide a forum for state of the art theoretical and empirical work on this that both facilitates communication among researchers from diverse fields and provides a theoretically sound source of information for educators The contributors to this volume who hail from several different countries in Europe and North America have certainly accomplished this goal in their nuanced and cutting edge depictions of the complex links among various executive function components and educational success
