Black Lion Sicelo Mbatha, Bridget Pitt, 2021-10-15 My name is Sicelo Cabangani Mbatha. My wilderness name is Black Lion. I am the black lion who helps people discover the wild animal within. I am the black lion who roars for peace and harmony on Great Mother Earth. I am the black lion alive in the wilderness. Wilderness guide Sicelo Mbatha shares the wisdom he has gained from a lifetime's intimate association with Africa's wildest nature. The story begins with a traumatic childhood experience that should have turned Sicelo against the surrounding wilderness. Instead he was irresistibly drawn to it. As a volunteer at Hluhluwe iMfolozi Park, close encounters with buffalo, lion, elephant and other animals taught him to see with his heart and set him on a lifelong journey of spiritual awakening. Drawing from his Zulu culture and his own yearning to better understand humanity's relationship with itself and with nature, Sicelo has forged a new path, disrupting the conventional approach to nature with an immersive, respectful and transformative way of being in the wilderness. Both memoir and philosophical reflection, Black Lion co-written with author and environmentalist Bridget Pitt is a reminder of how much we need the wilderness for our emotional and spiritual survival. A remarkable story, poetic and beautifully written. It goes to the heart of the meaning of ecological literacy. DR IAN McCALLUM, SPECIALIST WILDERNESS GUIDE.

'African Potentials' for Wildlife Conservation and Natural Resource Management Toshio Meguro, Chihiro Ito, 2021-10-01 This book focuses on two specific areas: wildlife conservation policies and projects and the interaction between local societies and the surrounding environment in Africa. Against the internationally dominant approach that regards Africa as being a state of deficiency, this book demonstrates, based on fieldwork concerning various natural resources (e.g. wildlife, forests, fruit, fish and land) as well as many famous protected areas, that African people are collectively and actively trying to solve the environmental problems they are facing by strategically utilising both indigenous means and new extrinsic opportunities. Meanwhile, it also becomes clear that wildlife conservation still continues to cause local societies a multitude of problems and the potentials of local people and societies are existing but unnoticed and suppressed by powerful outsiders and therefore remaining informal and invisible.

Just Security in an Undergoverned World William Durch,Joris Larik,Richard Ponzio,2018-01-19 Just Security in an Undergoverned World examines how humankind can manage global problems to achieve both security and justice in an age of antithesis Global connectivity is increasing visibly and invisiblyin trade finance culture and informationhelping to spur economic growth technological advance and greater understanding and freedom but global disconnects are growing as well Ubiquitous electronics rely on high value minerals scraped from the earth by miners kept poor by corruption and war People abandon burning states for the often indifferent welcome of wealthier lands whose people in turn draw into themselves Humanity s very success underwritten in large part by lighting up gigatons of long buried carbon for 200 years now threatens humanity s future The global governance institutions established after World War II to manage global threats especially the twin scourges of war and poverty have expanded in reach and impact while paradoxically losing the political support of some of their wealthiest and most powerful members Their problems mimic those of their members in struggling to adapt to new problems and maintain trust in norms and public bodies This volume argues however that a properly mandated managed and modernized global architecture offers unparalleled potential to midwife solutions to intractable issuesfrom violent conflict and climate change to poverty and pandemic diseasethat transcend borders and the capacities of individual actors It offers just security as a new framework for charting innovative solutions and strategies for effective and essential global governance

Contemporary Intelligence in Africa Tshepo Gwatiwa, 2024-08-08 The edited volume examines contemporary intelligence and tradecraft in Africa The work offers a timely and empirically grounded account of African intelligence It provides a multi contributor narrative that explains contemporary dynamics without discounting historical and external influences as well as explaining systemic dynamics borne by African agency The volume features chapters on different issues and themes in intelligence studies which include but are not limited to intelligence politicization covert operations and subversion during political transitions institutionalizing intelligence in post conflict states intelligence and counterterrorism financial intelligence and complex crimes intelligence professionalization media and intelligence intelligence humanization environmental intelligence and others The volume is geographically representative and features case studies from the five regions of Africa North Africa the Maghreb East Africa or Horn of Central Africa West Africa and Southern Africa Without following a specific theoretical orientation the book also aims to start a conversation around the prospects for a theory for African intelligence with the various chapters paying attention to the political social and economic nuances that have a bearing on contemporary intelligence in Africa This book will be of great interest to students of intelligence studies African politics security studies and IR
