Social Exclusion and the Gender Gap in Education Maureen Lewis, Challenging the Apartheids of Knowledge in Higher Education through Social Innovation Joana Bezerra,Craig Paterson ,Sharli Paphitis,2021-05-12 In order to understand the relationship between social innovation and the reimagining of the knowledge economy necessary to reorient higher education most fully towards the public good we must draw from the experiences of those working on the front lines of change This collection represents diverse voices and disciplines drawing together the critical reflections of academics students and community partners from across South Africa The book seeks to bring together theoretical and practical lessons about how research methods can be used in socially innovative ways to challenge the apartheids of knowledge in higher education and to promote the democratization of the knowledge economy

Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens,Nerina Bosman,2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics

Tests in Print Oscar Krisen Buros,2006 Translanguaging, Coloniality and Decolonial Cracks Robyn Tyler,2023-01-13 In this linguistic ethnography of bilingual science learning in a South African high school the author connects microanalyses of classroom discourse to broader themes of de coloniality in education The book challenges the deficit narrative often used to characterise the capabilities of linguistically minoritised youth and explores the challenges and opportunities associated with leveraging students full semiotic repertoires in learning specific concepts The author examines the linguistic landscape of the school and the beliefs and attitudes of staff and students which produce both coloniality and cracks in the edifice of coloniality A critical translanguaging lens is applied to analyse multilingual and multimodal aspects of students science meaning making in a traditional classroom and a study group intervention Finally the book suggests implications for decolonial pedagogical translanguaging in Southern multilingual classrooms

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher,Kate Cockcroft,2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners
