Standards in Practice, Grades 9-12 Peter Smagorinsky,1996 This book presents five composites of teachers and students in action to portray and elaborate on the English Language Arts standards developed by the National Council of Teachers of English and the International Reading Association The book demonstrates that teaching and learning are not generic homogeneous activities that transcend time space and culture Each chapter long narrative in the book follows a classroom community through a unit of study geared to that community s unique social and cultural context with its own distinct set of values and with learners who bring these values to class The book thus reveals the situatedness of both teaching and learning It helps illustrate how every classroom teacher can adapt standards into a learner centered pedagogy that capitalizes on students strengths Contains a glossary Each chapter contains resources NKA Solutions for All Economics
