anarchists 1840s to 1940s post war wave of student counter cultural and workers control anarchism of the 1960s and 1970s to the DIY politics and Temporary Autonomous Zones of the 1990s right up to the Occupy Movement and beyond the aim of this volume is to cover the humanities and the social sciences in an era of anarchist revival in academia Anarchist philosophy and anarchistic methodologies have re emerged in a range of disciplines from Organization Studies to Law to Political Economy to Political Theory and International Relations and Anthropology to Cultural Studies Anarchist approaches to freedom democracy ethics violence authority punishment homelessness and the arbitration of justice have spawned a broad array of academic publications and research projects But this volume remembers an older story in other words the continuous role of the anarchist imagination as muse provocateur goading adversary and catalyst in the stimulation of research and creative activity in the humanities and social sciences from the middle of the nineteenth century to today This work will be essential reading for scholars and students of anarchism the humanities and the social sciences Contesting Transformation Marcelle C. Dawson, Luke Sinwell, 2014-04-10 Contesting Transformation is a sober and critical reflection on the wave of social movement struggles which have taken place in post Apartheid South Africa Moving beyond a social movement scholarship that has tended to romanticise emergent movements this collection takes stock of the contradiction and complexity that is necessarily entangled in all forms of popular resistance Through an exploration of labour strikes legal organisations community protest and local government elections the contributors consider how different movements conceive of transformation and assess the extent to which these understandings challenge the narrative of the ruling African National Congress ANC An empirically grounded analysis from a coterie of leading researchers and analysts Contesting Transformation is the definitive critical survey of the state of popular struggle in South Africa today Protests and Generations: Legacies and Emergences in the Middle East, North Africa and the Mediterranean, 2017-04-18 The aim of Protests and Generations is to problematize the relations between generations and protests in the Middle East North Africa and the Mediterranean Most of the work on recent protests insists on the newness of their manifestation but leave unexplored the various links that exist between them and what preceded them Mark Muhannad Ayyash and Ratiba Hadj Moussa Eds argue that their articulation relies at once on historical ties and their rejection It is precisely this tension that the chapters of the book address in specifically documenting several case studies that highlight the generating processes by which generations and protests are connected What the production and use of generation brings to scholarly understanding of the protests and the ability to articulate them is one of the major questions this collection addresses Contributors are Mark Muhannad Ayyash Lorenzo Cini ric Gobe Ratiba Hadj Moussa Andrea Hajek Chaymaa Hassabo Gal Levy Ilana Kaufman Sunaina Maira Mohammad Massala Matthieu Rey G kb r Sarp Tanyildiz and Stephen Luis Vilaseca Protests and Generations is now available in paperback for individual customers Neither Vertical nor Horizontal Rodrigo Nunes, 2021-05-25 A decade ago a wave of mass mobilisations described as horizontal and leaderless swept the planet holding the promise of real democracy and justice for the 99% Many saw its subsequent ebb as proof of the need to go back to what was once called the question of organisation For something so often described as essential however political organisation remains a surprisingly under theorised field In this book Rodrigo Nunes proposes to remedy that lack by starting again from scratch Redefining the terms of the problem he rejects the confusion between organisation and any of the forms it can take such as the party and argues that organisation must be understood as always supposing a diverse ecology of different initiatives and organisational forms Drawing from a wide array of sources and traditions that include cybernetics poststructuralism network theory and Marxism Nunes develops a grammar that eschews easy oppositions between verticalism and horizontalism centralisation and dispersion and offers a fresh approach to enduring issues like spontaneity leadership democracy strategy populism revolution and the relationship between movements and parties

Global Movement Ruth Reitan, 2013-10-18 Critical research and theorizing on the Anti or Alter Globalization Movement has exploded over the last two decades This volume provides a platform for scholar activists themselves to share insights from engaged research and to critically reflect on movement histories and internal dynamics It also highlights ways in which activists are reaching beyond their geographical and issue boundaries to link with others in struggle to construct a broader global movement of the left and beyond Case studies span the social movement spectrum from more traditional concerns with class the primacy of the labor movement economic redistribution and justice through the so called new movements of identity and post materialist issues of peace the environment gender and indigenous struggles to the newest currents in post autonomy post anarchism and de or anti coloniality Together these studies show that what began in Chiapas with the Zapatista cry of basta ya as an anti globalization movement morphed for a time into alter globalization and global peace and justice and may now be emerging as a counter hegemonic project of and for global democratization This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations
