

ADVENTURES

flamethrower to try to smother it . . . and himself be caught.

Of course, when word of Flamethrower is caught, "he" turns out to be Alva. The character is faced with a moral choice: Does he side with Honor and the task he promised to perform, or friends and the woman he's come to love?

* The Pirates of Halar

The Minister of War, Admiral Hysdram, commissions a ship under the command of the player-character to sail into the Gulf of Halar and prey upon the Black Eagle pirates (who have, of course, been preying on Karamerkan merchant vessels); this is an opportunity for lots of rope-swinging, sword-wielding naval adventures.

Companion Adventures

* Holy War

Odorby Jowers (see his writeup in the "Characters" section) dies. Word is immediately sent out to his named successor, Farnatch Shorlone of Threshold, but in the meantime Alvin Odeby steps in and commences a Holy War—he orders his Order of the Griffin to begin an aggressive campaign to reconquer the Church of Triladana "back into the ground, where it belongs."

Odeby conducts his war from hiding; the Church of Karamerkan is split on the issue (Clerics such as Alvena and Desmond Kelvin will not obey Odeby); the player-characters are mustered to protect their own lands from this violence and are asked by the Duke to help uncover Odeby's hiding place and quash this rebel faction of his Church.

* The Black Eagle Banner

Either Duke Stefan decides enough is enough, or Baron Ludwig decides that the time is ripe. Whichever, both Karamerkan and the Black Eagle Bannor aim for war. The Black Eagle is supposed to be a sworn border of one and lightning and other monsters, making that banner equal to the Duke's forces . . . and only the wisdom of the player-character can tip the balance in the favor of the Duke.

Master Adventures

When you get into the realm of the Master Adventures, the Karamerkan's importance begins to fade from the campaign. You should be aware, though, that the Duke has his own passion, immortals—Halar, Petra, and Zirchev, his epic heroes.

Halar was a high-level fighter, Petra a high-level Cleric, and Zirchev a high-level Magician in the time of the great brain-mart war. Though Halar perished in the final battle, Petra cast a time dead fully upon him later. The three of them decided to begin their paths for immortality.

All three eventually gained immortality—Halar as an Epic Hero, Petra as a Dynasty, and Zirchev as a Paragon. Since their ascension, they have continued to work together, and when their time allows they observe events in Trilad lands (now Karamerkan).

As player-characters begin to follow their own paths, it is probably these three who will be their patrons—unless the player-character distinctly prefers an immortal introduced by you or in another Gazetteer.

Adventures in Print

There are four adventures already in print which are of particular importance to a Karamerkan-based campaign. They are:

* B6/The Veiled Society

This is the adventure which introduces the Veiled Society criminal organization, and showcases the struggles between the Rada, Sureness, and Violet families. It elaborates on the members of these families, describes the Festival of Love in more detail, and presents a more elaborate picture of life in the city of Specialism.

* B10/Night's Dark Terror

This adventure introduces the village of Riffles, and the Lake of Lost Dreams; the Callari and Vyula clans are described in greater detail; the Lost Valley of the Hutanaka, with its degenerate Hutanaka and Thakla, is showcased; the Iron Ring criminal society is introduced, as are several creature types (including the Chervall). It is also valuable for the detail provided on the nonhuman tribes of eastern Karamerkan, particularly tribal names and symbols.

* X10/Black Arrow, Red Shield

This adventure theoretically takes place 200 years in the future of this world. (It was originally written for the current day, but later pushed further ahead in the chronology because of the massive changes that the war described would cause.)

If you don't mind dealing with these changes, then you can run X10 (and its predecessors, X4 and X5) on the current day—but be prepared to allow for massive political alterations as this "First World War" is waged and concluded.

* X12/Skarda's Mirror

This adventure introduces Karamerkan and Hala of Venge, provides the map of Duke Stefan's hunting lodge—located west of the Estate of Sulewa—and provides for an adventure in which Expert-level player-characters can prevent a kidnapping of Duke Stefan by the mad wizard Skarda.
