James John F. MacArthur,2016-06-28 The apostle James the oldest half brother of Jesus was a key leader in the Jerusalem church During the early days of the young church the Jewish believers had been scattered by persecution Out of compassion James wrote this epistle to confront them and motivate them to test the quality and consistency of their faith Pastor John MacArthur will take you through the book of James passage by passage so that you can better understand this short but powerful book and how James gives us practical guidance on issues that also measure our true faith and our spiritual fruitfulness James calls all believers then and now to live a life that demonstrates saving faith marked by godly behavior ABOUT THE SERIES The MacArthur Bible Study series is designed to help you study the Word of God with guidance from widely respected pastor and author John MacArthur Each guide provides intriguing examinations of the whole of Scripture by examining its parts and incorporates Extensive but straight forward commentary on the text Detailed observations on overriding themes timelines history and context Word and phrase studies to help you unlock the broader meaning and apply it to your life Probing interactive questions with plenty of space to write down your response and thoughts Revelation John F. MacArthur,2016-06-28 The book of Revelation unveils Jesus Christ in his glory and victorious return And yet no other New Testament book of the Bible poses more serious and difficult interpretative challenges John MacArthur will take you through the book passage by passage so that you can better understand everything from the historical context to the coming of Christ s Kingdom The apostle John wrote this letter to the churches in Asia Minor who were feeling the overwhelming effects of persecution from all sides It was a reminder to them that God saw their hardships cared about them and would reward them for their faithfulness Through the use of vivid imagery John writes Revelation to reveal the end of human history the return of Christ and the establishment of a new heaven and a new earth John s message of hope in Revelation assures Christians that God is in sovereign control of all past present and future events He encourages believers to trust that Jesus Christ will judge the lost and will rule in ultimate victory over all human and demonic opposition ABOUT THE SERIES The MacArthur Bible Study series is designed to help you study the Word of God with guidance from widely respected pastor and author John MacArthur Each guide provides intriguing examinations of the whole of Scripture by examining its parts and incorporates Extensive but straight forward commentary on the text Detailed observations on overriding themes timelines history and context Word and phrase studies to help you unlock the broader meaning and apply it to your life Probing interactive questions with plenty of space to write down your response and thoughts Hebrews John F. MacArthur,Louis Evans,2003-07-22 General editor Lloyd J Ogilvie brings together a team of skilled and exceptional communicators to blend sound scholarship with life related illustrations The design for the Preacher s Commentary gives the reader an overall outline of each book of the Bible Following the introduction which reveals the author s approach and salient background on the book each chapter of the commentary provides the Scripture to be expounded The New King James Bible has been chosen for the Preacher s Commentary because it combines with integrity the beauty of language underlying Hebrew and Greek textual basis and thought flow of the 1611 King James Version while replacing obsolete verb forms and other archaisms with their everyday contemporary counterparts for greater readability Reverence for God is preserved in the capitalization of all pronouns referring to the Father Son or Holy Spirit Readers who are more comfortable with another translation can readily find the parallel passage by means of the chapter and verse reference at the end of each passage being expounded The paragraphs of exposition combine fresh insights to the Scripture application rich illustrative material and innovative ways of utilizing the vibrant truth for his or her own life and for the challenge of communicating it with vigor and vitality 1
