Stick to the Skin Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2019-01-08 The first comparative history of African American and Black British artists artworks and art movements Stick to the Skin traces the lives and works of over fifty painters photographers sculptors and mixed media assemblage installation video and performance artists working in the United States and Britain from 1965 to 2015 The artists featured in this book cut to the heart of hidden histories untold narratives and missing memories to tell stories that stick to the skin and arrive at a new Black lexicon of liberation Informed by extensive research and invaluable oral testimonies Celeste Marie Bernier's remarkable text forcibly asserts the originality and importance of Black artists' work and emphasizes the need to understand Black art as a distinctive category of cultural production. She launches an important intervention into European histories of modern and contemporary art and visual culture as well as into debates within African American studies, African diasporic studies and Black British studies. Among the artists included are Benny Andrews, Bessie Harvey, Lubaina Himid, Claudette Johnson, Noah Purifoy, Faith Ringgold, Betye Saar, Joyce J. Scott, Maud Sulter and Barbara Walker.

See What You're Missing Will Gompertz, 2023-04-04 Taking us into the minds of artists from contemporary stars to old masters, See What You're Missing shows us how to look and experience the world with their heightened awareness. Artists are expert lookers; they have learned to pay attention. The rest of us spend most of our time on auto pilot, rushing from place to place, our overfamiliarity blinding us to the marvellous life-affirming phenomena of our world. But that doesn't have to be the case. In his inimitable engaging style, Will Gompertz takes us into the minds of artists from contemporary stars to old masters, the well-known to the lesser-known, and from around the world to show us how to look and experience the world with their heightened awareness. In See What You're Missing we learn, for example, how Hasegawa Tohaku can help us to see beauty, how David Hockney helps us to see colour, and how Frida Kahlo can help us see pain. In doing so, we come to know the exhilarating feeling of being truly alive. See What You're Missing is at once entertaining and enlightening art history while delivering empowering new insights to its reader.

After Modernist Painting Craig Staff, 2025-01-23 This book presents both a historical survey and a critical re-evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 60 years. Offering a critical account of painting specifically rather than art more generally, After Modernist Painting provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium. Taking Clement Greenberg's Modernist Painting as its starting point, the book focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to Conceptual Art and Minimalism, the pronouncement of painting's alleged death, its response to Installation Art's foregrounding of site, how painting both images and imagines the digital, and how it continues to embody a particular set of ideas and responses to the world. Revised and expanded to reflect developments in the field since the first edition was published in 2013, After Modernist Painting addresses a range of global artists and painting practices from the Dansaekhwa art movement in South Korea to the Conceptualism of Geta Bratescu in 1970s Romania. Essential reading for students on fine arts painting courses, the book is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice, and also provides a valuable starting point for other more specialized histories of particular painters.

Women Artists (Art Essentials) (Art Essentials) Flavia Frigeri, 2019-10-01 A chronological introduction to women artists throughout history, this book provides a rich understanding of key female artists from the Baroque to the present day. In 1971, in an essay that has now become one of the touchstones of feminist art history, Linda Nochlin raised the question heard round the world

Why have there been no great women artists Since the 1970s as a result of this kind of consciousness raising the feminist discourse around art has expanded addressing forms of activism the idea of a feminist aesthetic the female body sexuality and representation more largely The reframing of female contributions to the history of art is still ongoing and this new addition to the Art Essentials series draws attention to some of its key dimensions Focusing on fifty diverse women artists from Artemisia Gentileschi through Judy Chicago Ana Mendieta and the Guerrilla Girls to Barbara Kruger Cindy Sherman and Mona Hatoum this book equips readers with an understanding of feminist art as well as an appreciation of its most important figures This latest addition to the Art Essentials series documents women artists in context to offer readers a rich understanding of key female artists from the Baroque to the present day
