Designing an incentive plan to turn sales reps into sales superstars If you're like most sales leaders your incentive program is a constant challenge as you try to jumpstart sales energize a geographically dispersed and autonomous workforce and motivate salespeople to achieve ambitious revenue goals And sometimes it seems like you just don't know what works your products and markets are changing the incentive program that was so successful last year no longer produces the desired results or perhaps the generous incentive program you created has yielded a corps of highly paid salespeople who spend most of their time on existing clients and minimal time generating new business and threaten to walk away with your customer base if you scale back paychecks Incentive programs are seductively powerful but complicated instruments Without careful planning and implementation they can be too stingy to motivate too complex to understand too quick to reward mediocre results and too difficult to implement But a well designed and implemented incentive program is an essential tool for building a motivated highly effective sales force that delivers the results you need
