Pentsov, 2007-10-31 The importance of international maritime labour law both as a component of ernational maritime law and in socio political and economic terms has been recognised by the IMO International Maritime Law Institute for a number of years Indeed the Institute has annually organised a course on maritime labour law with the participation of inter alia the International Maritime Organization the ernational Labour Organization the International Transport Workers Federation and the German Shipowners Association It was therefore a great pleasure when the authors invited me to introduce their forthcoming monograph on Maritime Work Law Fundamentals Responsible S powners Reliable Seafarers As the title suggests a fundamental challenge of this branch of international maritime law is to achieve a balance between the interests of the two main stakeholders Institutionally the effort to achieve this balance dates back a number of decades with its genesis mainly found in the work of the International Labour Organization It has to be said that whilst this effort achieved great progress it has led to a haphazard plethora of legal instruments International Safety Guide for Oil Tankers and Terminals International Chamber of Shipping, 2006 Lloyd's Register OneOcean's Guide to Port Entry 1993-94 Albania-Jordan Lloyd's Register Foundation, 1993-01-01 First published in 1971 these Guides provide invaluable information on thousands of commercial ports and terminals across the globe They are compiled and published annually by LR OneOcean whose years of global maritime experience allows them to provide expert and innovative solutions that enhance efficiency sustainability and overall industry success The Guides cover a significant geographical breadth and the most recent volume includes information on over 12 500 ports harbours and terminals worldwide These are fully indexed and contain detailed port plans and mooring diagrams International Safety Guide for Oil Tankers & Terminals International Association of Ports and Harbors, 1984 Tanker familiarization International Maritime Organization, 2000 IMO publication sales no T101E Lloyd's Register OneOcean's Guide to Port Entry 1987-1988 Nations A-L Lloyd's Register Foundation, 1987-01-01 First
