Key Messages & Take Home Points: Regularly checking and maintaining safe working conditions is essential for preventing workplace accidents and injuries. This includes ensuring proper use of equipment, maintaining clear walkways, and providing adequate training for all employees. Regular safety audits and inspections are crucial for identifying potential hazards and implementing corrective actions. A strong safety culture, supported by management commitment and employee participation, is key to reducing workplace incidents. Investing in safety measures, such as personal protective equipment (PPE) and safety training, can significantly reduce the risk of accidents and associated costs. Prioritizing safety not only protects the well-being of employees but also ensures the continuity and productivity of the organization.

Key Message 2.2: While 97% agreed on monitoring, 81% agreed on reporting, 74% agreed on reviewing, 64% agreed on evaluating, and 50% agreed on communicating.
